DESPATCHES

From Major General Z. Taylor, received at the War Office Oct. 11.

[No. 89.]

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF OCCUPATION, Camp before Monterey, Sept. 22, 1846.

Sir: I have the honor to report that the troops under my command, including the mounted volunteers from Texas, marched from Marin on the 18th, and encamped before Monterey on the 19th inst. It was immediately discovered that the enemy occupied the town in force, and had added greatly to its strength by fortifying the approaches and commanding heights. A close reconnoissance was made the same evening by the officers of engineers and topographical engineers on both flanks of the town, and it was determined, from the information procured, to occupy the Saltillo road in rear of the town, carrying, if practicable, the several fortified eminences in that direction. The 2d division of regular troops and a portion of Col. Hays's regiment of mounted volunteers was accordingly detached under Brig. Gen. Worth on this service, at noon on the 20th.

A ten-inch mortar and two 24-pounder howitzers were placed in battery during the night to play upon the citadel and town. At 7 o'clock these guns opened and continued a deliberate fire, which was returned. To create a still further diversion in favor of Gen. Worth's movement, the remainder of the force, except a camp guard was displayed around the centre and left of the town. The infantry and 1 battery of the 1st division made a strong demonstration on the left, and soon became so closely engaged that I moved forward the volunteer division under Major General Butler to its support, leaving one battalion (1st Kentucky) to cover the mortar battery. A close contest then ensued, which resulted in the capture of one strong battery of four guns, which with some adjacent defences our troops now occupy. A garrison was left to hold this position, and the remainder of the force returned to camp.

In the mean time General Worth had engaged the enemy early in the morning, and defeated him with considerable loss. In the course of the day two of the batteries in rear of the town were carried by storming parties of the 2d division, and a third was carried this morning at dawn of day. The Bishop's Palace occupied the only remaining height in rear of the town, and is completely commanded by the works already carried. Gen. Worth's division occupies the Saltillo road, and cuts off all succor or support from the interior. I must reserve a more minute report of the important operations of yesterday until those of the different commanders are rendered, and also until a topographical sketch of the country can be prepared.

I regret to report that our successes have not been obtained without severe loss, to be attributed in a good measure to the ardor of the troops in pressing forward. No returns of killed and wounded have yet been received; nor is it known what corps of Gen. Worth's division have suffered most. In the other portion of the army the 1st, 3d, and 4th regiments of infantry and regiment of Tennessee volunteers have sustained the greatest loss. The following is believed to be an accurate list of the officers killed and wounded:

Killed.

2d Infantry.—Brevet 1st Lieutenant J. S. Woods, (serving with 1st infantry.)

3d Infantry.—Captain L. N. Morris; Captain G. P. Field; Brevet Major P. N. Barbour; 1st Lieut. and Adj., D. S. Irwin; 2d Lieut. R. Hazlett.

4th Infantry.—1st Lieut. and Adj't., C. Hoskins.

8th Infantry.—Capt. H. McKavett.

Maryland and Washington Battalion Volunteers.—Lieut. Col. W. H. Watson.

Volunteer Division.

Ohio regiment.—1st Lieut. M. Hett.

Tennessee regiment.—Captain W. B. Allen; Lieut. S. M. Putman.

Wounded.

Corps of Engineers.—Brevet Major J. K. T. Mansfield, slightly.

Corps of Topographical Engineers.—Capt. W. G. Williams, (in hands of the enemy.)

1st Infantry.—Brevet Major J. L. Abercrombie, slightly; Capt. J. H. Lamotte, severely; 1st Lieut. J. C. Terrett, in hands of the enemy; 2d Lieut. R. Dilworth, severely.

3d Infantry.—Major W. W. Lear, severely; Capt. H. Bainbridge, slightly.

4th Infantry.—1st Lieut. R. H. Graham, severely.

5th Infantry.—1st Lieut. N. B. Russell, slightly.

7th Infantry.—2d Lieut. J. H. Potter, severely.

8th Infantry.—2d Lieut. George Wainwright, severely.

Volunteer Division.

General staff.—Maj. General W. O. Butler, slightly.

Ohio regiment.—Col. A. M. Mitchell, slightly; Capt. James George, slightly 1st Lieut. and Adjutant A. W. Armstrong, very severely; 1st Lieut. N. Niles, severely; 1st Lieut. Motter, slightly.

Mississippi regiment.—Lieut. Col. A. H. McClung, severely; Capt. R. N. Downing, slightly; 1st Lieut. H. F. Cook, slightly; 2d Lieutenant R. K. Arthur, slightly.

Division of Texas Mounted Volunteers.

1st regiment.—Capt. R. A. Gillespie mortally.

I need hardly add, that the conduct of our troops, both regulars and volunteers, throughout the operations, has been everything that could be desired. The part which each corps contributed to the successes of the day will appear more fully in future reports. To Major Generals Butler and Henderson, and Brigadier Generals Twigg and Worth, commanding divisions, I must express my obligations for the efficient support which they have rendered—particularly so to Brigadier Gen. Worth, whose services, from his detached position, have been most conspicuous.

I am, sir, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

Z. TAYLOR,

Major General, U. S. A. Com.

THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,

[No. 90.]

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF OCCUPATION, Camp before Monterey, Sept. 23, 1846.

Sir: I have the gratification to report that the Bishop's palace was gallantly carried yesterday by the troops of the 2d division. In the course of the night the batteries below the town were, with one exception, abandoned by the enemy, and this morning were occupied by our troops. To-day, the third infantry with the field artillery of the 1st division, the Mississippi and Tennessee regiments, and the 2d regiment of Texas riflemen, (dismounted,) have been warmly engaged with the enemy in the town, and have driven him with considerable loss to the plaza and its vicinity, which is yet strongly occupied. A portion of the 2d division has also advanced into the town on the right, and holds a position there. The enemy still maintains himself in the plaza and citadel, and seems determined to make a stubborn resistance.

I am particularly gratified to report that our successes of yesterday and to-day, though disastrous to the enemy, have been achieved without material loss.

I cannot speak in too high terms of the gallantry and perseverance of our troops throughout the arduous operations of the last three days.

I am, sir, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

Z. TAYLOR,

Major General U. S. A. Com.

THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,

Washington, D. C.

[No. 91.]

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF OCCUPATION, Camp before Monterey, Sept. 25, 1846.

Sir: At noon on the 23d inst., while our troops were closely engaged in the lower part of the city, as reported in my last despatch, I received by a flag, a communication from the governor of the State of New Leon, which is herewith enclosed, (No. 1.) To this communication, I deemed it my duty to return an answer declining to allow the inhabitants to leave the city. By eleven o'clock p. m., the 2d division, which had entered the town from the direction of the Bishop's Palace, had advanced within one square of the principal plaza, and occupied the city up to that point. The mortar had in the meantime, been placed in battery in the cemetery, within good range of the heart of the town, and was served throughout the night with good effect.

Early in the morning of the 24th, I received a flag from the town, bearing a communication from General Ampudia, which I enclose, (No. 2); and to which I returned the answer, (No. 3.) I also arranged with the bearer of the flag a cessation of fire until 12 o'clock, which hour I appointed to receive the final answer of Gen. Ampudia at Gen. Worth's headquarters. Before the appointed time, however General Ampudia had signified to General Worth his desire for a personal interview with me, for the purpose of making some definitive arrangement. An interview was accordingly appointed for one o'clock, and resulted in the naming of a commission to draw up articles of agreement regulating the withdrawal of the Mexican forces, and a temporary cessation of hostilities. The commissioners named by the Mexican general-in-chief were Generals Ortega and Requena and Don Manuel M. Llano, governor of New Leon. Those named on the American side were General Worth, General Henderson, governor of Texas, and Colonel Davis, Mississippi volunteers. The commission finally settled upon the articles, of which I enclose a copy, (No. 4), the duplicates of which (in Spanish and English) have been duly signed. Agreeably to the provisions of the 4th article, our troops have this morning occupied the citadel.

It will be seen that the terms granted the Mexican garrison are less rigorous than those first imposed. The gallant defense of the town, and the fact of a recent change of government in Mexico, believed to be favorable to the interests of peace, induced me to concur with the commission in these terms, which will, I trust receive the approval of the government. The latter consideration also prompted the convention for a temporary cessation of hostilities. Though scarcely warranted by my instructions, yet the change of affairs since those instructions were issued seemed to warrant this course. I beg to be advised, as early as practicable, whether I have met the views of the government in these particulars.

I regret to report that Captain Williams, topographical engineers, and Lieut. Terrett, 1st infantry, have died of the wounds received in the engagement of the 21st. Capt. Gatlin, 7th infantry, was wounded (not badly) on the 23d.

I am, sir, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

Z. TAYLOR,

Maj. Gen. U. S. Army, commanding

THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,

Washington, D. C.

(No. 1.)

D. Franco, De P. Morales, Governor of New Leon, to Major General Taylor.

[Translated.]

MONTEREY, Sept. 26, 8 o'clock, a. m.

As you are resolved to occupy the place by force of arms, and the Mexican general-in-chief resolved to defend it at every cost, as his honor and duty require him to do, thousands of victims, who, from indigence and want of means, find themselves now in the theatre of war, and who would be uselessly sacrificed, claim the rights, which in all times, and all countries humanity extends. As governor of the State, and a legitimate representative of the people, I state their case to you, and hope from your civilization and refinement, that whatever may be the event of the present contest, you will issue orders that families shall be respected, or will grant a reasonable time for them to leave the capital.

I have the honor to salute you general-in-chief of the army of occupation of the
