POLITICAL.

From the Union.

TO THE PEOPLE.

The session of Congress, which has just terminated, will be long and gratefully remembered by all true republicans for the triumphant success of many of their cherished principles and measures. While we heartily rejoice at the triumph of the principles which it has been our constant effort to advocate and defend, and from which no prosperity, no adversity, can swerve us; we cannot be unmindful of the attitude in which we are placed by a recent vote of both houses of Congress—we allude to the contemplated withdrawal of their patronage from the newspaper press. To this decision we cheerfully bow, sensible as we are of the patriotic motives which have led to it. But we trust that this decision of Congress increases rather than diminishes our claim to the support of a higher power—that of the people; and to them we confidently appeal to aid us, by their patronage, in sustaining at the seat of government a journal that is inflexibly devoted to their interests and the true interests of the country.

It is known to every one, that the chief source of sustaining a newspaper is not the magnitude of its subscription list, so much as the advertising patronage which may be bestowed upon it. In large commercial cities, indeed the latter is usually the concomitant of the former, as it becomes the obvious interest of mercantile men to advertise in those papers which are the most extensively circulated. Washington, however is differently situated. Deprived of the advertising patronage incident to a mercantile community, and burdened with peculiar and enormous expenses which are not elsewhere incurred, nothing but a very long list of subscribing patrons can sustain a paper in usefulness—if, indeed, even in existence. The proprietors of the "Union" have hitherto spared no pains, and no expense, to make their paper worthy of the metropolis, and worthy of the support of that great party under whose banner they are enlisted. In publishing the most full and ample debates of the two houses of Congress, it is believed, ever before attempted on this continent in a daily newspaper, they have secured the services of the best reporters which the country afforded, but at the enormous cost of $12,000 or $15,000 per year. Their extensive foreign and domestic correspondence is another large item of expense, but the instructive usefulness of which is so highly commended and appreciated as to justify almost any outlay to attain it. Still, it must be evident that these heavy expences cannot be borne, unless the subscription list is commensurate to the undertaking; and although we can boast of 15,000 subscribers, (including daily, tri-weekly, and weekly,) yet this list must be still considerably enlarged to enable the proprietors of the "Union" to sustain all its usefulness, and to insure them against pecuniary loss. Invoking, then, again, the aid and support of all true friends of republican government, and pledging ourselves to renewed efforts in the cause of the glorious principles we cherish, we offer the following proposals:

The "DAILY UNION" will be published, as heretofore, at $10 per annum, payable in advance. Its character hitherto has been almost exclusively political. We purpose in future to devote a portion of its columns to domestic news of general interest, and to miscellaneous literature, which without impairing its political influence, may render it the more acceptable to an extended class of readers.

The "SEMI-WEEKLY UNION" will be published every Monday and Thursday, during the recess of Congress, at $5 per annum. This contains all the matter contained in the "Daily Union," except local advertisements. During the sessions of Congress three numbers, instead of two, will be issued, without any extra charge to subscribers.

Enlargement of the Weekly Union.

The "WEEKLY UNION" is issued every Saturday; and as arrangements are in progress to enlarge it to near double its present size, we shall soon be enabled to give nearly every article which may appear in the daily and semi-weekly editions, at the extremely low rate of $2. We propose also to give, in this edition, a complete synoptical summary of the proceedings in both Houses of Congress—thus rendering the "Weekly Union" a most valuable channel of information to all classes of our country. But to remunerate us for this enterprise, an extensive subscription list is absolutely indispensable.

Congressional Register.

In addition to the foregoing, we have resolved to publish, during the sessions of the national legislature, a "Congressional Register," to be issued weekly, and to contain a FULL REPORT of the daily proceedings and debates of both houses. Indeed, the arrangements which we have made with the very best corps of reporters will enable us to give even more full and extended reports than we have produced during this session, superior as we claim them to be to any preceding ones. The Register will be made up from the daily reports in the "Union," carefully revised by an experienced editor, and will constitute a complete and authentic record of the session. An appendix will be added, uniform with the Register, and to be sent gratuitously to subscribers, comprising a list of the acts passed during the session, with a synopsis of their contents, and a reference, when necessary, to previous legislation. This will form the most complete history of the sessions of Congress, and will be furnished at the low price of SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS for the next session.

POSTMASTERS are authorized to act as our agents; and by sending us five yearly subscribers, with the subscription money, for either the Daily, Semi-Weekly, or Weekly, will be entitled to one copy of the same edition as they furnish us subscribers for.

THE CONGRESSIONAL REGISTER will be furnished them on the same terms.

NEWSPAPERS publishing our prospectus, with the notes attached, until the 1st of December next, will be entitled, during the next session of Congress, to receive a copy of the Congressional Register and Tri-Weekly Union.

Clubs will be furnished with

5 copies of the Daily for	$40 00
5 do Semi-Weekly	20 00
10 do do	35 00
5 do Weekly	8 00
10 do do	15 00
20 do Congressional Reg'r	10 00

The name of no person will be entered upon our books unless the payment of the subscription be made in advance.

From the Raleigh Register.

Late from the Army.—We saw, yesterday, a letter from a young volunteer from Alabama—a native of this place—dated Camargo, Oct. 5, to his brother in this city, which states that Gen. Taylor had ordered the whole force encamped there, to take up the line of march for Monterey forthwith. The writer adds:—

"We shall remain at Monterey, I suppose, until we get fully provisioned, and then we shall proceed to Sattillo, to oust old Santa Anna from his den with his 20,000 red-breasts. Gen. Taylor writes that there is a force ahead of him, that is beyond Monterey, of 20,000 Mexicans, engaged in building fortifications, but says nothing as to whether they are headed by that pusillanimous wooden leg."

"It is reported here that Ampudia has broken the armistice concluded between him and Gen. Taylor."

From the Fayetteville Carolinian.

The N. York State Convention for amending the State constitution, adopted the amended instrument by 112 to 6; showing that the makers are pretty well pleased with it at all events. Now, the people of the State, en masse, have to pass upon it, and it is supposed they will adopt it by a decisive majority. The vote will be taken on the whole together, and not on the different sections, so that they either accept all or reject all. Except on the section allowing free negroes to vote. A separate poll will be held on that. The operation of this constitution will be interesting to the whole country. There are several new features in it, some of which may be considered an experiment.

Abolitionism.—The Liberty vote in this State will not be less than 15,000, it is thought. A very large increase—about doubling in two years.—Ohio Statesman.

Deep Distress.—The Portland Argus says that an agent has been into the county of Franklin, Maine "drumming up" girls to go to work in the Lowell factories. This agent has $1 a head for every girl that he sends on. There seems to be great distress in the factories at present, but not of the kind the panic-makers pretend. It is a distress created by a press of work beyond the ability of the operatives engaged to perform—a distress for girls—for female power—and not from failure of business.—N. Y. Ev. Post.

Naval Preparations.—While our land forces are hewing their way to the heart of Mexico, our navy is about to commence active service on the coast. The preparations in the navy department are of the most energetic description. Another commodore, to assist those now in the Gulf, is about to be sent down to the squadron. Commodores Stewart and Ridgely are both understood to have applied for the command. The three ships of the line, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Ohio, are being overhauled, preparatory to being despatched to the Gulf. The ulterior object of all these preparations is an attack on San Juan, Ulloa. As for Tampico, it is expected that it will fall an easy prey. New York Herald.

From the Raleigh Star.

The Evacuation of Monterey.—Mr. Haile, the special correspondent of the Picayune, writing from Monterey, says that the Mexicans marched out of the city in three Divisions, of 2,500 each, on the 26th, 27th, and 28th ult. To this number he says may be added 2,000 horse-men, who left the city in small parties, and 5,000 citizens, all of whom took up arms, making the total force engaged in the defence of the place, about 14,500 men.—The Mexicans as they defiled through the streets, made "any quantity of noise," with their horns, trumpets, kettle drums and fife. The army was accompanied by a vast crowd of women of every shade of complexion, and every degree of beauty and ugliness. Officers' wives, with faces muffled and hats on, rode on horseback.—Soldiers' wives on donkeys, and the camp followers generally on foot, some of them bearing enormous burdens. He noticed one pretty little creature about nine years old, with a pet chicken upon one arm, and a parrot perched upon her hand. The Mexican soldiers looked sullen, and their eyes gleamed with hatred and desire for revenge. Ampudia had to pass through the Texan camp, and it is said that he manifested the utmost trepidation on the occasion.

From the N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

Capture of a Mexican brig-of-war.—From a letter published in the city of Mexico, it appears that the Mexican brig-of-war Malek-Adhel was captured in the port of Mazatlan by one of our vessels, supposed to be the sloop-of-war Warren. The Warren, being outside, dispatched five launches, well armed, to capture the Mexican then at anchor in the bay.—The officers and crew on board the brig, unprepared for an attack, took to their boats in great confusion on the appearance of the Americans. Two officers named Zerega and Cillio and several sailors were taken prisoners. The moment the "Yankees" found themselves masters of the vessel, they cut her cables and made sail for the frigate.

Murder.—Alexander F. Hays, of Lexington, Ky. was lately murdered. His body was found near the town, on the Nicholasville road, dreadfully cut with a bowie knife. Fifteen stabs were also discovered in the breast, which appeared to have been made with a smaller instrument.—N. Y. Jeffersonian.
