POLITICAL.

From the Union.

TO THE PEOPLE.

The session of Congress, which has just terminated, will be long and gratefully remembered by all true republicans for the triumphant success of many of their cherished principles and measures. While we heartily rejoice at the triumph of the principles which it has been our constant effort to advocate and defend, and from which no prosperity, no adversity, can swerve us; we cannot be unmindful of the attitude in which we are placed, by a recent vote of both houses of Congress—we allude to the contemplated withdrawal of their patronage from the newspaper press. To this decision we cheerfully bow, sensible as we are of the patriotic motives which have led to it. But we trust that this decision of Congress increases rather than diminishes our claim to the support of a higher power—that of the people; and to them we confidently appeal to aid us, by their patronage, in sustaining at the seat of government a journal that is inflexibly devoted to their interests and the true interests of the country.

It is known to every one, that the chief source of sustaining a newspaper is not the magnitude of its subscription list, so much as the advertising patronage which may be bestowed upon it. In large commercial cities, indeed the latter is usually the concomitant of the former, as it becomes the obvious interest of mercantile men to advertise in those papers which are the most extensively circulated. Washington, however is differently situated. Deprived of the advertising patronage incident to a mercantile community, and burdened with peculiar and enormous expenses which are not elsewhere incurred, nothing but a very long list of subscribing patrons can sustain a paper in usefulness—if, indeed, even in existence. The proprietors of the "Union" have hitherto spared no pains, and no expense, to make their paper worthy of the metropolis, and worthy of the support of that great party under whose banner they are enlisted. In publishing the most full and ample debates of the two houses of Congress, it is believed, ever before attempted on this continent in a daily newspaper, they have secured the services of the best reporters which the country afforded, but at the enormous cost of $12,000 or $15,000 per year. Their extensive foreign and domestic correspondence is another large item of expense, but the instructive usefulness of which is so highly commended and appreciated as to justify almost any outlay, to attain it. Still, it must be evident that these heavy expenses cannot be borne, unless the subscription list is commensurate to the undertaking; and although we can boast of 15,000 subscribers, (including daily, tri-weekly, and weekly,) yet this list must be still considerably enlarged to enable the proprietors of the "Union" to sustain all its usefulness, and to insure them against pecuniary loss. Invoking, then, again, the aid and support of all true friends of republican government, and pledging ourselves to renewed efforts in the cause of the glorious principles we cherish, we offer the following proposals:

The "DAILY UNION" will be published, as heretofore, at $10 per annum, payable in advance. Its character hitherto has been almost exclusively political. We purpose in future to devote a portion of its columns to domestic news of general interest, and to miscellaneous literature, which without impairing its political influence, may render it the more acceptable to an extended class of readers.

The "SEMI-WEEKLY UNION" will be published every Monday and Thursday, during the recess of Congress, at $5 per annum. This contains all the matter contained in the "Daily Union," except local advertisements. During the sessions of Congress three numbers, instead of two, will be issued, without any extra charge to subscribers.

Enlargement of the Weekly Union.

The "WEEKLY UNION" is issued every Saturday; and as arrangements are in progress to enlarge it to near double its present size, we shall soon be enabled to give nearly every article which may appear in the daily and semi-weekly editions, at the extremely low rate of $2. We propose also to give, in this edition, a complete synoptical summary of the proceedings in both Houses of Congress—thus rendering the "Weekly Union" a most valuable channel of information to all classes of our country. But to remunerate us for this enterprise, an extensive subscription list is absolutely indispensable.

Congressional Register.

In addition to the foregoing, we have resolved to publish, during the sessions of the national legislature, a "Congressional Register," to be issued weekly, and to contain a FULL REPORT of the daily proceedings and debates of both houses. Indeed, the arrangements which we have made with the very best corps of reporters will enable us to give even more full and extended reports than we have produced during this session, superior as we claim them to be to any preceding ones. The Register will be made up from the daily reports in the "Union," carefully revised by an experienced editor, and will constitute a complete and authentic record of the session. An appendix will be added, uniform with the Register, and to be sent gratuitously to subscribers, comprising a list of the acts passed during the session, with a synopsis of their contents, and a reference, when necessary, to previous legislation. This will form the most complete history of the sessions of Congress, and will be furnished at the low price of SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS for the next session.

POSTMASTERS are authorized to act as our agents; and by sending us five yearly subscribers, with the subscription money, for either the Daily, Semi-Weekly, or Weekly, will be entitled to one copy of the same edition as they furnish us subscribers for.

THE CONGRESSIONAL REGISTER will be furnished them on the same terms.

NEWSPAPERS publishing our prospectus, with the notes attached, until the 1st of December next, will be entitled, during the next session of Congress, to receive a copy of the Congressional Register and Tri-Weekly Union.

Clubs will be furnished with

5 copies of the Daily for	$40 00
5 do. Semi-Weekly	20 00
10 do. do	35 00
5 do. Weekly	8 00
10 do. do	15 00
20 do. Congressional Reg'r	10 00

The name of no person will be entered upon our books unless the payment of the subscription be made in advance.

From the Raleigh Register.

The citizens of Wilmington have resolved unanimously, to apply to the next Legislature for authority to borrow and subscribe to their Rail-Road to South Carolina, the sum of $200,000; and for authority to lay taxes to pay the principal and interest of the debt.

Female Kidnappers.—An old hag named Morris alias Henley, and her two filly daughters, originally from Wake but fresh from Granville, N. C., were overhauled by a Mr. Mirable, (from the last named county) near Rocky Mount, Franklin county, Va., a few days ago, while wending their way to Ohio, with an old poor horse and a raw-fish cart, and two of his negro men found lying at full length in the cart, covered over, head and foot with bed clothes—in which position the negroes say they travelled from Granville until overtaken by their masters. It seems that these three whelps of sin started with three runaway slaves, but one of them being quite a young black bird, he was caught in Roxborough, by the citizens—he showed himself, while the elder "birds" passed through snugly ensconced among the greasy bed clothes in the cart. These tropes, we learn, upon losing their black companions, "tacked back" to North Carolina, with the intention of locating in Wake. And as their object is, doubtless, to get another load of "black birds," we would say to the people at large, and the people of Wake, and Granville particularly, be on your guard.

Mr. Mirable, being a very humane man, declined punishing these individuals with the law because they are very poor and ignorant, and have two or three infant children with them.—Milton Chron.

From the N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

Lucky Type.—Capt. James M. Schofield, Editor of the New London Morning Star, has recently become sole heir, by the death of a bachelor uncle, to an estate in the northern part of Scotland, said to be worth $180,000.

The Louisville Journal estimates the crop of Indian corn in the west, at 500,000,000 bushels; wheat, 140,000,000 bushels, equal to 28,000,000 bbls. of flour.

Practical Amalgamation.—At Athol, last Tuesday evening, Rev. J. N. Mars, a colored gentleman and preacher of the Wesleyan order, was united in marriage by Rev. Mr. Town, of Salem, to Miss Elizabeth Holt, of Salem, whose skin of unblushing whiteness contrasts most strangely with the ebony color of the bridegroom. Mr. Mars formerly preached at Salem, and was succeeded by Mr. Town, who was sent for to tie the variegated knot. Mars, we understand, has buried two wives, and is about fifty years of age, and the new bride about thirty-five. The parties are regarded as highly respectable. Barre Patriot.

THE WORN-OUT FONT OF TYPE.

I'm setting at my desk, George;
Before me on the floor,
There lies a worn-out font of type,
Full twenty thousand score;
And many months have passed, George,
Since they were bright and new,
And many are the tales they've told—
The false, the strange, the true.
Their beauty has all gone, George,
You scarcely now may trace,
Upon the snowy medium,
The likeness of their face.
They mind me of a man, George,
Whose morn of life was full
Of promise, but at evening's close
Was desolate and dull.

What tales of horror they have told,
Of tempest and of wreck;
Of murder in the midnight hour;
Of war, full many a "speck";
Of ships that, lost away at sea,
Went down before the blast;
Of stifled cries of agony,
As life's last moment passed!
Of earthquakes and of suicides,
Of falling crops of cotton;
Of bank defaulters—broken banks,
And banking systems rotten;
Of boilers bursting—steamboats snagg'd;
Of riots, duels fought;
Of robbers with their prey escaped—
Of thieves with booty caught.

Of land slides, and of water-spouts;
Of ants and alligators;
Of serpents in the briny deep;
Of giant sweet potatoes;
Of children lost and children found;
Finances in disorder;
Of figs among the firemen,
And troubles on the border.

They've told us of a nation, George,
Bent sorrowing in the dust,
For one whom she had called to fill
Her highest, dearest trust;
Of sparkling crowns for youthful brows;
Of royal coronations;
Of plans to rid the earth of kings;
Of temperance reformatory.
Of flood, and fire, and accident,
These worn-out types have told;
And how the pestilence has swept
The youthful and the old;
Of marriages, of births, and deaths;
Of things to please or vex us;
Of one man's jumping over-board,
Another gone to Texas!

They've told how long sweet summer days
Have faded from our view;
How autumn's chilling wind hath swept
The leaf-crown'd forest through;
How winter's reign hath come and gone—
Dark reign of storm and strife—
And how the smiling spring hath warm'd
The pale flowers back to life.

I can't pretend to mention half
My ink friends have told,
Since, shining, bright, and beautiful,
They issued from the mould—
How unto some they joy have brought,
To others grief and tears!
Yet faithfully they record kept
Of fast receding years!
