POLITICAL.

From the Halifax Republican

As we have commenced a new volume, we desire and think it proper that our position should be fully known to both political parties of the day. One of these parties has entirely abandoned its old platform, while the other has become triumphant in the success of that policy which has met with a hearty response from the American people. We congratulate our friends of the Republican party on the bright prospects that await us; with a Republican Governor and a Republican Legislature we hail North Carolina as redeemed and disenthralled, while we assure them we will ever be in the foremost ranks battling against those who would espouse the cause of Federalism or fight under an abolition flag.

When we first grew up, there were but two parties—the Federal and the Republican. We then took sides with the Republican party and were in favor of the first four years of General Jackson's Administration. When South Carolina nullified the Tariff we took sides with South Carolina; and when General Jackson issued his Proclamation and Force Bill and for other causes, we quit him.

We soon found ourselves among many others of the Republican party, mixed in with the Federal party, who were delighted to receive us, which gave the Federal party the ascendancy in many of the Counties and States, where they scarcely could raise up their "heads" and shake their "tails" before, under the name of Whig for instance, in this, Halifax County, the time was when Federalism could not advance a step—one dare not mention it—its name was never heard. But thank God, it is down again in this County—where it will remain "among the things that were." And we hope and believe it will go down every where.

"To the vile dust from whence it sprang,
Unwept, unhonored, and unsung."

We were originally a Republican and supported the Jacksonian Republican party; and although we have acted a long time with the Federal party, under the name of Whig we never were a Federalist at heart.

We now come out from among them—renounce Federalism and declare ourselves to be a DEMOCRATIC REPUBLICAN. Federalism has nothing to stand upon, whilst Democracy "is built upon the Rock of eternal ages"—the principles upon which this Government was formed. These principles have been carried out so successfully by patriotic men, that our Institutions have become the boast and glory of the world. Our people are prosperous and happy and "can sit under their own vine and fig tree and none dare make them afraid."

"SOUTHERN DEMOCRAT"

The Subscriber having purchased the Press, type, &c., with which the "North Carolina Democrat" was printed, proposes to publish, on or before the 1st day of January, 1851, in Graham, Alamance County, N. C., a weekly paper of the size of his predecessor and bearing the above title.

The Southern Democrat will advocate

Internal Improvements, Constitutional Reform and Southern Rights. Of its political complexion it is needless to say more at present than, that it will be thoroughly Democratic. The Literary, Agricultural and Scientific Departments, will be filled with the choicest selections from the best publications the country affords. In fine it will be the aim of the subscriber to furnish a paper containing the usual variety of intelligence, and meriting a share of public patronage.

Graham.—Our Town was so called as a compliment to Ex Gov. Graham, the present able and excellent Secretary of the Navy. Fifteen months ago the sound of the Mechanic's hammer had not been heard within our limits. To-day we have a population numbering over two hundred souls, with the prospect of a steady increase. Quite a number of handsome buildings have already been completed and are occupied from cellar to garret. Besides private residences which for number and beauty of construction, would be highly creditable to a much older place. We have four elegant stores containing large and general assortments of Dry Goods, Groceries &c. Three more are in course of erection and will be completed in time for the spring stock. Our fine New Court House is rapidly approaching its completion and will be ready for the blind Goddess to take her seat in at an early day.—ib

Burnt to Death.—Mr. Ludwick Albright, of this county, met the above horrible fate in the afternoon of Tuesday 24th ultimo. The deceased had been drinking during the day, and late in the evening, went with his son, and another man, to the barn, for the purpose of feeding his stock. While there he went into the cutting room, brought out some spirits which he had secreted there and invited them to drink with him. They refused but he drank it, it is supposed, deeply. He and his son shortly thereafter returned to the house; and after putting away his gun, with which he had been shooting at a mark, he was seen to take a seat before the fire and dropping his head upon his hands in a sort of drunken stupor, was in that situation left. His son returned in about an hour, and found him lying on his face, with his head and shoulders in the fire, and burnt to death! His head was nearly consumed—his hands dropt off at his wrists upon being removed. A Coroner's inquest has since been held over the body and the jury returned a verdict in accordance with the above facts. The deceased left a wife and seven children, all of whom were absent at the time when the melancholy occurrence, which we have just recorded, happened, except the little boy above mentioned.—ib

California.—The New York Herald states that by the last arrival from California, the editor of that paper has received private despatches of a most important character, which induce the belief that it is and has been meditated for a long time past, by some of the most influential and leading men of that new State, to organize an expedition of Americans, and to proceed to that portion of Mexico known as Lower California, with the view of assisting the people of that territory, in declaring their independence of the Central Government, and afterwards seeking incorporation with this republic, in precisely the same manner as the American adventurers in Texas acted. The Herald adds that this intelligence is derived from such sources as place its reliance almost beyond doubt.

The British Periodicals And the Farmer's Guide.

LEONARD SCOTT & CO.,
NO. 54 GOLD ST., NEW YORK,

Continue to publish the four leading British Quarterly Reviews and Blackwood's Magazine; in addition to which they have recently commenced the publication of a valuable Agricultural work, called the

"Farmer's Guide to Scientific and Practical Agriculture."

By HENRY STEPHENS, F. R. S., of Edinburgh, author of the "Book of the Farm," &c.; &c.; assisted by JOHN P. NORRIS, M. A., New Haven, Professor of Scientific Agriculture in Yale College, &c., &c.

This highly valuable work will comprise two large royal octavo volumes, containing over 1400 pages, with 18 or 20 splendid steel engravings, and more than 600 engravings on wood, in the highest style of the art, illustrating almost every implement of husbandry now in use by the best farmers, the best methods of ploughing, planting, haying, harvesting, &c., &c., the various domestic animals in their highest perfection; in short, the pictorial feature of the book is unique, and will render it of incalculable value to the student of agriculture.

The work is being published in Semi-monthly Numbers, of 64 pages each, exclusive of the Steel engravings, and is sold at 25 Cents each, or $5 for the entire work in numbers, of which there will be at least twenty-two.

The British Periodicals Re-published are as follows, viz:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW (Conservative).
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW (Whig).
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW (Church).
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal).
AND BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE (Tory).

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time, unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons" and "My New Novel" (both by Bulwer, "My Peninsular Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood after it has been issued by Messrs Scott & Co., so that Subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

Dudley's Anti-rheumatic Oil.

A certain and speedy Cure for Chronic Rheumatism, Spasms of the Muscles, Ligaments and Back, and for Sprains, Bruises, and Contusions.

THE history of this invaluable medicine is remarkable. It has risen into notice, and established a high and just reputation in the region of country where it has been tried, alone from the surprising and numerous cures it has effected. The Proprietor Dr. Samuel Dudley, Hospital Surgeon, on the Island of Portsmouth, North Carolina, has used it with unfeigned success both in the hospital, and in his private practice about twenty years—During that period it has been attracting public attention, and gradually rising into general and high reputation in all that region of country, solely by the surprising certainty of the cure it has uniformly effected. But very recently, it has never been advertised, and no pains have been taken to extend its celebrity. Its high reputation therefore is permanent, because it is based upon surprising and unfeigned experiments alone. The Proprietor encouraged by its eminent success in cases of Chronic Rheumatism, and by the advice of his friends, and he will add, actuated by a desire to extend as far as possible the benefits of its healing properties, now taking measures to make its wonderful properties generally known. All he asks is a fair trial. It is now offered to the public in the Eastern portion of North Carolina. The Proprietor is perfectly willing to put the result of its success or failure upon its success or failure, in curing or failure to cure any case of Chronic Rheumatism, or other affection for which it is recommended.

Certificates from highly respectable sources like the following, can be multiplied to almost any extent. A few are appended.

The following has been politely furnished by that highly esteemed citizen, Col. Joshua Tayloe, of Beauf county, N. C., well known as a valuable member of our State Senate, and present Collector of the Port of Ocracoke, North Carolina:—

"At the request of Dr. Samuel Dudley of Portsmouth North Carolina, I state that some years ago one of my sons had a severe and protracted attack of Rheumatism, and by using his "Anti-Rheumatic Oil" he was relieved.

It gives me great pleasure also to say that besides this case, I have heard of others which convince me that this oil is very valuable in cases of Rheumatism."

The Human Hair

Is admitted by civilized as well as barbarous nations to be when full, flowing and perfect, the greatest ornament, and when imperfect or wanting the greatest disadvantage to the personal appearance of male or female. That it is a duty to preserve and beautify it, all will admit. This article has been for more than 20 years used extensively. It has the testimony of many of the most respectable citizens in this country, who certify to the fact, that the

BALM OF COLUMBIA

First, in all cases stops the hair falling out or restores it in most if fallen, and in all cases if lost by sickness; and keeps off dandruff and scurf on infants and adults. Second, perfumes the hair and preserves it to old age from turning gray. Should always be used at toilette. Third, gives great vigor and rapid growth to the hair, and causes it to curl beautifully. Lastly, prevents all fifth or its consequence on children's heads, and exceeds all other articles for the hair in quality, quantity and cheapness. Many articles have been started on the reputation of this, and are without merit though they have been and are sold at double the prices of this balm.

To the half and lame—Dr. Hewes' nerve and bone liniment is the most effectual cure for rheumatism and contracted cords and muscles.

The gray haired will find the Indian Hair Dye perfect and effectual.
