A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas there is a reason to believe that a military expedition is about to be fitted out in the United States with intention to invade the Island of Cuba, a colony of Spain with which this country is at peace; and whereas it is believed that this expedition is instigated and set on foot chiefly by foreigners, who dare to make our shores the scene of their guilty and hostile preparations against a friendly power, and seek, by falsehood and misrepresentation to seduce our own citizens, especially the young and inconsiderate, into their wicked schemes—an ungrateful return for the benefits conferred upon them by this people in permitting them to make our country an asylum from oppression, and in flagrant abuse of the hospitality thus extended to them:

And whereas such expeditions can only be regarded as adventures for plunder and robbery, and must meet the condemnation of the civilized world, whilst they are derogatory to the character of our country, in violation of the laws of nations, and expressly prohibited by our own. Our statutes declare "that, if any person shall, within the territory or jurisdiction of the United States, begin or set on foot, or provide or prepare the means for any military expedition or enterprise, to be carried on from thence against the territory or dominions of any foreign Prince, or State, or of any colony, district or people, with whom the United States are at peace, every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor, and shall be fined not exceeding three thousand dollars, and imprisoned not more than three years."

Now, therefore, I have issued this, my Proclamation, warning all persons who shall connect themselves with any such enterprise or expedition, in violation of our laws and national obligations, that they will thereby subject themselves to the heavy penalties denounced against such offence, and will forfeit their claims to the protection of the Government, or any interference on their behalf, no matter to what extremities they may be reduced in consequence of their illegal conduct. And, therefore, I exhort all good citizens, as they regard our national reputation, as they respect their own laws and the laws of nations, as they value the blessings of peace and the welfare of their country, to discountenance, and by all lawful means prevent, any such enterprises; and I call upon every officer of this Government, civil or military, to use all efforts in his power to arrest for trial and punishment every such offender against the laws of the country.

Given under my hand the twenty-fifth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and the seventy-fifth of the independence of the United States.

Important Decision—The right of an occupant of a house to compel persons to leave the ground in front of it.—On Saturday David Vondersmith was before the court on a writ of habeas corpus. He was charged with an assault and battery on Andrew Kee, the keeper of a hackney carriage. The facts are, that Kee was standing in front of the United States Hotel, when he was ordered to leave by Mr. Snider. The latter called the defendant to arrest him, which he did, and took him to the mayor's office. It was for this that the prosecution was brought. Kee alleged that he went to the hotel to look for a gentleman who owed him money, and that he was not inside of the hotel. Judge Parsons said he would decide the question presented upon first principles, so that the right of parties should be clearly understood. Every man owns the ground in front of his house. He has given to the public a right to pass and re-pass over it; but in all other respects it is as much his property as any other part of the premises. No one has a right to stand or carry on any business in front of any man's house; and if he is thus annoyed, and notifies the party to leave, and he don't, he has a perfect right to use sufficient force to compel the offender to go. If such was not the law, a person might set up a fishstand under another's parlor window, or any other obnoxious business. A man keeps a public house to entertain strangers and travellers, and no one has a right to come about his premises to interfere with his customers or guests. It has been held by the Court that men and boys have no right to collect at the corners of streets. At the last term of the court, in a case where arrests were made by an officer of persons who had collected around a house where an unfortunate female, who made a noise, resided, it was laid down that the police had a right to disperse them. When Kee was told to leave the place by the proprietor, he ought to have done so. His refusal to go gave the proprietor a right to take him by the collar and put him off the pavement, or call a public officer to do it, which was the wis- er course. Vondersmith having done nothing but his duty, he was accordingly discharged from custody.

State Bonds.—We understand that the bids for the $50,000 worth of State Bonds, recently advertised by the Public Treasurer, were opened on Monday last, the 21st instant, by Mr. Courts in presence of the Secretary of State and Comptroller, and a record made of them.

We learn further that most of the bonds went off at about one per cent. premium.—None were sold for less than one per cent. and a small amount commanded as high as five per cent. Bids to the amount of more than $200,000 were offered, and all by citizens of the State.

The Treasurer has addressed letters to all whose bids have been accepted, and will preserve a record of the whole proceeding together with the original bids, for the inspection of the Committee of Finance.

This is a gratifying exhibition of the State's credit. We believe this is the first time that a premium has been obtained on our State bonds.

We have before us a pamphlet containing the charter of the Greenville and Raleigh Plank Road Company, the by-laws adopted by the Company, the name of the Stockholders and the number of shares held by each, and the proceedings of the first meeting held in February last. The whole number of Stockholders is 145, number of shares taken 2439; amount of shares subscribed, at $25 each, $60,975.

Craven Superior Court.—At the Spring term of the Superior Court for Craven county, held week before last, Henry Brown and Henry Bryan were tried on an indictment for grand Larceny, for stealing and conveying away two guns from the store of John Brissington, Esq., of New-Berne.—After the trial had proceeded for some time, Brown confessed that he had stolen both of the guns. The jury however returned a verdict against both Brown and Bryan.—The former was sentenced to receive and did receive 39 lashes. Bryan who is quite a young man, will be shipped we learn upon a whaling voyage, with the understanding that the sentence hangs suspended over him should he ever return to New-Berne.

John Tilghman convicted at the fall term of Craven Superior Court of the murder of Joseph J. Tilghman, was sentenced to be executed on Saturday the 14th of June next.—A petition for a pardon will be sent to the Governor of the State—ib.

Row in a Church—Ministers Arrested in a Pulpit.—The associated Presbyterian Church, in Frankford Road near Franklin street, Kensington, was yesterday the scene of the most disgraceful proceeding which we have been called upon to chronicle for a long time past. It appears the congregation who formerly occupied the church have become divided among themselves, and the two parties have been quarrelling as to who shall have possession of the premises. Yesterday morning, at an early hour, some of the members called at the Kensington Station House, and stated that they desired a number of officers to be present in the church, as there would no doubt be trouble. They were informed that it was rather a delicate matter to arrest persons in church, and a warrant was accordingly obtained from Alderman Shoemaker, for the Rev. John Lyon, on the charge of inciting to riot.

At half past ten o'clock yesterday, services were commenced by the Rev. John Lyon, but there being a disposition shown to create a fight by those who were opposed to this gentleman, officer Young of the Marshal's Police, walked up to the pulpit and arrested him. This was the signal for a great excitement among those in attendance and much confusion. The Rev. gentleman was taken to the Kensington lock-up, accompanied by an immense crowd. He there had a hearing before Alderman Shoemaker, who held him in $1,000 bail for a further hearing on the charge of inciting to riot.

After this proceeding, another person attempted to complete the services of the day, but he was interrupted by some poor half witted person, somewhat intoxicated, who rushed towards the pulpit with the intention of whipping this gentleman out. He was arrested by officer G. Rihl and conducted to the lock-up where he remained at a late hour yesterday afternoon. Philadelphia Pennsylvanian.

Unfortunate Occurrence.—We understand that a difficulty took place between Lewis P. Breedlove and Jacob Segrest on Saturday evening last, which resulted in Mrs. Breedlove's being severely shot. The parties, we understand, had been quarrelling at Chehaw, but finally quit and went home. Segrest, however, got his rifle, and went over to the house of Breedlove for the purpose of shooting him. Mrs. Breedlove saw him coming, and got between him and her husband, and received the load of the rifle in the fleshy part of the fore arm, which it dreadfully lacerated. The ball then struck the arm above the elbow, and running up, buried itself somewhere between the shoulder and the neck.

Mrs. Breedlove is the sister of Segrest, and the parties have for sometime been at law about the property of Segrest's father, who died sometime last year.

Dudley's Anti-rheumatic Oil.

A certain and speedy Cure for Chronic Rheumatism, Spasms of the Muscles, Ligaments and Back, and for Sprains, Bruises, and Contusions.

THE history of this invaluable medicine is remarkable. It has risen into notice, and established a high and just reputation in the region of country where it has been tried, alone from the surprising and numerous cures it has effected. The Proprietor, Dr. Samuel Dudley, Hospital Surgeon, on the Island of Portsmouth, North Carolina, has used it with unfeigned success, both in the hospital, and in his private practice about twenty years. During that period it has been attracting public attention, and gradually rising into general and high reputation in all that region of country, solely, by the surprising certainty of the cures it has uniformly effected. Until very recently, it has never been advertised, nor have any pains been taken to extend its celebrity. Its high reputation therefore is permanent, because it is based upon surprising and unfeigned experiments alone. The Proprietor encouraged by its eminent success in cases of Chronic Rheumatism, and by the advice of his friends, and he will add, actuated by a desire to extend as far as possible the benefits of its healing properties, is now taking measures to make its wonderful properties generally known. All he asks is a fair trial. It is now offered to the aicted in the Eastern portion of North Carolina. The proprietor is perfectly willing to put the result of its success or failure upon its success or failure, in curing or failure to cure any case of Chronic Rheumatism, or other affection for which it is recommended.

Certificates from highly respectable sources like the following, can be multiplied to almost any extent. A few are appended.

The following has been politely furnished by that highly esteemed citizen, Col. Joshua Tayloe, of Beauf county, N. C., well known as a valuable member of our State Senate, and present Collector of the Port of Ocracoke, North Carolina:

"At the request of Dr. Samuel Dudley of Portsmouth, North Carolina, I state that some years ago one of my sons had a severe and protracted attack of Rheumatism, and by using his "Anti-Rheumatic Oil" he was relieved.

It gives me great pleasure also to say that beside this case, I have heard of others which convince me that this oil is very valuable in cases of Rheumatism."
