WITH CLEARER VISION. [Carlotta Perry in Burlington Hawkeye.]

I saw to night the man I loved Three little years ago, I did not think so short a time Could change a mortal so!

There were none like him in those days, So strong, so true, so wise; He had a lofty, marble brow, And tender, soulful eyes.

A voice of music; hair by which The raven's wing would seem But pale indeed; a face and form To haunt a sculptor's dream. But when I looked at him to-night,

A very common face. No marble brow, no soul-lit orbs; The face was round and sleek
