What was it when a babe I lay "Caught on" to me one summer day, And almost walked with me away?

And when I grew to quite a kid, And down the cellar door I slid, What made me sorry for what I did?

and when I to an urchin grew, and thought I more than mother knew, What made me think I'd "broke in two?"

Green apples.

When my pants "had grown" quite long, And I myself had grown quite a rong, What one day made me feel "quite wrong?" A cigar, and when I sought "my little bed," And thought to rest my dizzy head, Who "thumped" me till my face was red? My mother.

And when I was a dandy clerk, And "tipprd" a girl a "knowing smirk," Who "fixed" me so I couldn't work? Her brother. ind when I from my bed arose,

Who on to all my wages "froze?"
