

BE SURE YOU ARE RIGHT; THEN GO AHEAD.-D Crockett.

TARBORO', N. C., THURSDAY, MARCH 28 889.

VOL. 67. NO. 13.

Malarial Regions, will find Tutt's Pills the most genial restarative ever offered the suffering invalid. Try Them Fairly. A vigorous body, pure blood, strong terves and a cheerful mind will result SOLD EVERYWHERE. 46tlyr

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

DR. LOUIS H. REID, WILLIAMSTON, N. C., Respectfully tendershis Professional Services to the Public and to his Bro. Physicians in Martin and surrounding countles. Office in S. R. Biggs' Drug Store, 22tf J. J. Martin, Geo. Howard. Howard & MARTIN.

Attorneys and Counselors at Law, TARBORC N. C.

Practices in all the Courts, State and nov.5-1y. Federal. ----DONNELL GILLIAM H. A. GILLIAM. GILLIAM & SON

Attorneys-at-Law, TARBORO', N. C.

Will practice in the Counties of Edgecombe, Halifar and Pitt, and in the Courts of the First Judicial District, and in the Circuit and Supreme Courts at Raleigh. jan18-1y.

TOHN L. BRIDGERS & SON, Attorneys-at-Law, TARBORO, -----14 1yr -D^{R. H. T. BASS}

LOYAL AT LAST A Tale of Love and Adventure in the Late Civil War.

BY BERNARD BIGSBY. AUTEOR OF "ELLES'S SECRET," "FALLES AMONG THIEVES " "MY LADY FANTAS-TICAL," AND OTHER STORIES. [Copyrighted, 1868, by the A. N. Kellogy New paper Company.] CHAPTER XVII.

MY BOY HARRY. When Captain Winthrop found him of the gateway of the Central station in New York, I fancy he felt, for all his brave words to his wife, a little was about to encounter, for like all untraveled provincialists, his ideas of the metropolis were not exactly flat. tering to its inhabitants It was mid afternoon when he ar rived, and, first "running into dock" at a hotel he set boldly out for East Sixty third street. It was reeking human beings could endure it and house, for Kate had promised to ac- writers: live. Along Fifth avenue it was bad company him on a trip to Staten Isl-ed street he had fairly to grasp for was not without the feminice weakrespiration. The neighborhood was ness of being a wee bit behind time not a pleasant one, for by degrees in getting ready-he saw a scrap of the character of the houses seemed to deterioate until at last he reached a region of squalid tenement dwell I make no apology for the indelucacy ings, teeming with slatternly women and half naked children, whom the torian, but the wicked Captain picked stiffling air had driven to the doorsteps. Again and again he paused.

thinking he must have blundered, but ing the following: the inscription on the street lamps reassured him and he plodded on. Then things mended a little. There was a marked improvement in the style of houses, which were now of the park with him, and altogether his hand on his boy's shoulder, watchconducted himself in such a repre- ing the gay scene around him, but hensible manner, that I am sure the suddenly his gaze concentrated on reader has lost all coufidence in him. four figures grouped on the lawn-The next day was a repetition of his wife and his son's wife, Walter the previous one, and the more he Frobisham and Gordon Grey, and he saw of the charming girl the more said: his heart warmed towards her, and he "The dead past is burying its dead became so demonstrative in his affec- pretty fast, boy. I did not think I paper lying on the floor and recogtion that he scandalized Mrs. Wilson, could be ever so grateful to God as I Kate's landlady, so that she felt it am this moment to see the blue and her duty to warn the young lady the gray blended in such a union. against the danger of the elderly gen- Say, Harry, we must do something self one of the hundreds pouring out tleman's admiration, which brought for that fine young fellow, your broth the first smile she had seen in Kate's | cr-in-law-a few thousands would be a migh y help to him to start in his face for many a day.

and "show him about a bit," and even [But Diniel Winthrop's mind was succeeded in inveigling her to dine net just now devoted to the glories with him at his hotel and drive in of steam-whistles. He stood with

By and by they became more con- new profession. Yes, I would like nervous concerning the troubles he fidential and she told him many of to do something for him for Kate's the struggles through which she had sake, for the best gift your father passed and her manner of encounter. ever made you was the chance to ing them, all of which tended to more bring that brave girl home as your deeply impress him with the fact that | wife.

A glad light leaped to the young she was a jewel of a girl who could man's face-a radiant look that gladhold her own under any difficulties. But the crisis of the Captain's in- dened the father's eye to behold- appointments to Presidential postoffices ly returned from Lower California says consistencies came upon the third and, with a laugh that but half conhot-hotter than the Captain in his day of his visit to New York. Bright cealed his earnestness, he replied in wildest dreams had ever imagined and early he was at Mrs Wilson's the words of the greatest of all

"She is mine own: enough, but when he turned to the and. And he sat in the atti- dingy and I as rich in having such a jew 1. right into a narrower and more crowd- parlor waiting her arriva. --for Kate The water nectar and the rocks pure goid."

Short Sermons.

ADVICE TO A BRIDE. In the first solitary hour after the nized at once Harry's handwriting. ceremony take the bridegroom and demand a solemn vow of him, and give him a vow in return. Promise it up and deliberately read it through. one another sacredly never. even in It was a portion of a letter containjest, to wrangle with each other. whatever pretext, with whatever ex "While I acknowledge that he is cuse it may be. You must continuthe best father that man ever had, I ally and every moment see clearly into am deeply pained to add that there each other's bosom. Even when one is no sign of that unreasonable ani- of you has commit ed a fault, wait patron saint, which was reviewed by the mosity to the name of Fobisham not an instant, but confess it freely. Mayor and city authorities. Ex. wearing away; and if, as you say, you And as you keep nothing secret President Cleveland and ex-Secretaries ginning. Twenty-four Sepoys were will not be my wife until he of his from each other, so, on the contrary. Buyard, Fairchild and Valas passed ments to let," and at last he reached own free accord asks you to consent preserve the privacy of your house, through Wilmington Monday morning, NEWS OUTLINES. (Star Condensation. MONDAY.

MONDAY. There was a very interesting debate in the Senate on a proposed amendment of the rule, reported unanimously from the committee on Rules, requiring resolutions that call for information from the executive departments to be referred to appropriate committees: Mr. Sherman advocated the proposed amendment. while it was strongly opposed by Messrs Voorhees, Gorman and Butler, and is expediency seriously questioned by Messrs. Hoar, Teller and Spooner; no other business was done in open session .-.. A Spanish steamship was wrecked among the Philippine Islands on January 30th, when forty-two lives were lost Gov. Lee, of Virginia, accompanied by Gen. Joseph R. Anderson, has gone on a week's pleasure trip to Florida It is exbected that from this time a number of

will be made each day. TUESDAY.

The case of Cross and White, the de_ faulting bank officers of Raleigh, was to have been argued in the U.S. Supreme Court, but it will probably be postponed until the October term. J. W. Maron, to fully organize the State, of West Virginis, has been selected for Commission er of Internal Pevenue. ... A dective and an armed posse, who were sent to McDowell and Wyoming cousties. West Virginia, to break up a large number of illicit distilleries, have been entrapped by the moonshiners and their lives are threatened: thirty arrests were made, but more than double that number bid definance to the officials. There was in-inster parade in New York, of the wearers of the green, in honor of Ireland's tion that he abstain from agitation during the period of his release. A German newspaper has been suppressed by the overnment under the Socialist law.

The Typograpical Union of Charleston. S.

C., has boycotted two of the city papers.

THURSDAY.

will end Thursday or Friday next.

... A number of railrod companies

by four masked men Wednesday night

... A Tennessee desperado, who had cartridgies with damaging results, made his escape, and has fled into this state.

.... The Fall River strike is still unsettled; the weavers have refused to accede to the proposed terms of the manu-

FREDAY.

In the Senate no public business was reduction or complete shut-down is necessary. There is no change in the Fall River strike situation, but the impression prevails among the manufacturers that the strike will end next week.

A St. Louis dispatch report that the tant bagging trust or pool, which expired by limitation last December, is to be revived but the plan of operation will not exactly thing new under the son.

be the same as last year, and prices are not expected to be pushed up so high. ... A French torpedo boat foundered off Cherbourg, when her captain and fourteen of the crew were drowned. It is announced that the Samoan conference will probably be postponed until the beginning of May. The seizure of a newspaper in Berlin by the police authorities has created a great sensation. Ex-President Cleveland and party arrived at Havana, and were scoorded an enthusiastic welcome; the Gavernor General's mansion was tendered as a home during their stay in Havanna, but it was declined. A prospector who recentthe gold craze is all a "fake," and that the excitement has nearly died away

... A mass meeting of negroes was held in Raleigh, Friday night and organized the North Carolina Emigration Associ. tion; a call was issued for a State Convention to be held in Raleigh; April 22d, Blown From a Gau.

During the Sepoy rebellion of 1857 '58 many of the mutineers were blown away from the guns. It was a terrible punishment, one which had been inflicted a century before at the first mutiny of the o' changes!"

Bengel army in 1764. A battalion of Sepoys had seized and imprison-Arizona boasts of a woman who "can ed its English officers, and vowed it drive a nail with a bullet at forty yards.' would serve no more. A strong When Arizona can produce a woman hand arrested the mutiny at its be able to drive a nail with a hammer at a distance of one foot, without wounding tried by a drum-head court martial found guilty, and sentenced to be her fingers, it will have a curiosity worth oaraving about

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

BITS OF FUN. On a schoolship even the ropes are

A patch on a boy's trousers is some-

"Do de chile talk. Missus Parkus? Wall, only pa'tly; he mek de soun's, but kain't fo'm de wuds yit."

Fledgeby: "That dog of yours has a curiously high note in his bark, Ferguson' erguson: "Yes, his bark is on the C."

Editor of the London "Times" (to the manager): "What shall we do now to make people forget those horrid letters?" Manager: "Suppose we attack the coast defenses. I think we can prove that the guns were forged by a fellow named

The hot water cure is highly spoken of. A young man of o r acquaintance was purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competion with the multi-tude of low test, short weight alum or phos-phate powders. Sold only in cans. Royal Baking Powder Co., 106 WallSt., N. Y 1911. completely cured of an attachment for a young lady by one kettleful, which the old man let him have.

Irate old customer (to grocer's boy): "Say, boy, is them grapes nice and ripe?" Boy: "We-well, s-sir, s-s-some on 'em are half ripe, s-s-some on 'em r-rive, and s-some on 'em are b-b-bad. I guess, m-mister, they'll average 'bout r-ripe.''

Tourist: "What great changes time works here in the West! A few years HAVE JUST MOVED MY STOCK ago, this region was peopled by reds without a white." Kansas Rustler: "Ansence the drouth it's be'n mostly whites GROCERIES without a red. Oh, time works a heap Into the iron front store formerly occupied by S. S. Nash & Co., directly opposite the HARDWARE STORE

Where I will be please to see my GROCERIES OF ANY DESCRIPTION. HORSE AND COW FEED OF EVERY DISCRIPTION, By the retail, ton, or car load at CLOSE PRICES. S.S. NASH, Tarboro, N. C , March 6th, '89. 10t4

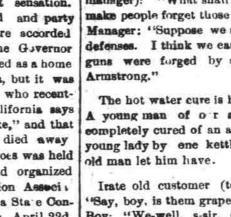

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of REMOVAL!

-):0:(--

of

Offers his professional services to the citi rins of Tarboro and vicinity. Office on Main Street near Coker's corner.

FIRES, FIRES

ANNUALLY destroy many dwellings and they are caused not so often by incendiarism as they are by sparks falling on a dry wooden roof. Formlerly the difference in the cost of wood and tin was so great that many felt that they could not afford the latter: Now this great inequality does not exist

A TIN ROOF COSTS BUT LITTLE MORE THAN A SHINGLE ONE,

So there is no excuse for loosing one's house from sparks falling on the roof Now is the season for QUTTERING and TINNING and now is the time that you can have it doe VERY CHEAPLY, by H. B. Sledne & Co. T R OBO, N C. 15tlvr

FERCHANT TAILOR.

LE POLD JAKOWFSKY his moved i to the bu 'ding be wee Dr. Biss' office an Coser's stort, and will do business on h's OWN ACCOUNT Clothing cat and made to order. Fits and SATISFACTION CUARANTEED. Cleaning add repairing done. My terms will be LOWER THAN EYER. Itlyr LEOPOLD JAKOWFSKI.

I can't give it to you, but anything usually kept in a FIRST-CLASS" DRY GOODS STORE YOU CANGET and

-SO CHEAP-

That you will not miss even the small change ou of your pocket. A few of these goods I had before, but most o em I have

JUST PURCHASED

IN THE NORTHERN MARKETS.

I wish to call special attention to my stock of Ladies' DRESS GOODS, TRIMMINGS, BUTTONS, LINEN & CAMBRIC HANDKERCHIEFS.

There is no need to particularize. You just think of anything you want and kiss.

COME HERE

And get it, for I've got it, GOOD, AND HORSES. BRAND NEW. throp." For an hour they talked, yet not a tered in the gent e breeze. For on begin in mildle life to degener, te in a fire occurred in a bagging factory in mit of none but real. lace for the ever was, under a positive guarantee, R. C. BROWN, word dil the wicked Captain say of this day Harry Winthrop was bring character. They leave behind them Come and see me. the generous impulses, the energizing which a large number of girls were chemise, but allow of imitation lace that it will in every case give satisemployed, and many of them made narrow for drawers and petticoats. The re-escapes from burning to death; one was finement and elegance of under-#3-1 am in the Cotton Market and will pay the Come and see my the object which had brought him to ing home his bride. the city; and so confidential did they become that when she showed him speeches and all the gay music were youth. They cease to exercise their EST market prices. W take cotton wrapped terribly burned and lost her life. clothing is carried to an excess by ing and delicate ailments and weak-MULES. n anything save wood. R. O. B. Two of the Austrian ministry have Parisian ladies. Over the chemise nesses peculiar to women. It is not some water colors she had sketched half as sweet to his father as the imagination in the practical conduct TARBORO' N. C. Come and see my had the unblushing audacity to de-clare that he knew a picture dealer which his protaer captains saluted of the down into a humdrum, prosaic, Austria and Greece. 1113 HORSES. Austria and Greece. SATURDAY. In the Senate a large number of nomi-nations were confirmed. ... A number of iron mills in Pennsylvania have given Austria and Greece. Nor the corset of satin, black or red for the daytime; white, cream, or pale pink for the evening. The un-der petticoat is of slightly quilted silk, matched to the corset, and trimmed with black or white lace. Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Come and get Prices. and even worldly habit of mind. THE Best Salve in the world for Cuts, who was aching to secure just such their happy old comrade. And Kate, as she hangs on her Hence it is that men who have Bruises, Sores, U'cers, Salt Rheum, Fever, things, offering, if she would entrust COME AND BUY Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and p s-tively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per Then he pleaded that also much to her Then he pleaded that also much to her the science at last, Harry, and for all the the science at last, Harry and for all the sometimes fail and fall in J.K.Grannis. Then he pleaded that she must healed at last, Harry, and for all the motion, sometimes fail and fall in have given there shall be in the motion, sometimes fail and fall in have given there shall be in the motion, sometimes fail and fall in April 6; the managers say that either a not more so than the dress itself. Granvill & irest. boz. For sale by Staton & Zoeller. [2t

No. 2051 A pleasant-looking, neat, middle- far off.' aged woman was sweeping the doorstep as he approached. "Dues Miss Frobisham live here?" me the bugbear all this while." the Captain asked, mopping his brow of the hotel.

coom.

not delay it an hour.

ped those bothersome etters.

I'll join you in a few minutes.

with a bandana handkerchief big enough for a sacht flag. "Yes, sir. Please come in." And the Captain found himself in a small dark sitting-room, made hideous with aborions in wax flowers and colored tidies after the manner of the New Hotel, New York. Reply.' York lodging-houses. "You'll excuse me, sir," the woman continued, when the Captain was seated, "but might I ask your busiate step he had taken.

the shabby-genteel order, with windows decorated with cards of "Apart-ness with Miss Frobisham" The Captain stared in indignant silence. "Oh, you need not be angry. sir I don't ask you of curiosity; only try, and I suppose you are one of the | how your telegram has upset me, for family. "Merely an old friend," the Captain explained. "An old friend, eb! Then I'm glad I took the precaution of speakin · to you. You must deal gently with her, for she's seen about as much trouble as she can bear, and if you are going to worry her with any bad news or other unpleasantness you won't see her at all, and that's plump.' The Captain felt very nacomforta-"The piano man's been here this morning and taken the instrument away, though she starved herself to pay the hire, and too proud she is to let me help her. Lord above knows what she'll do if some of her people don't turn up-but, gracious, I'm letting my tongue wag, and precious mad she'd be if she knew I'd let on about her troubles.'

"May I see her, please?' the Captain asked, meekly. "Yes, I suppose I must tell her you to terms?" are here," the woman said, reluctantly. "Wait a few minutes and I will fetch her."

trustful look in his face the old man Left to himself, the Captain began to deplore the obstinacy of women in general and Kate Frobisham in particular. Why, in the name of goodhim and the boy Harry. ness, couldn't she let his boy alone? It was a very quiet wedding, for

But he would bring this young person to her senses before he left the city, sure as his name was Danie: Winthrop Euddenly the door opened aud

Kate Frobisham stood before him. Now, it is one thing for an elderly gentleman to make big resolutions and another to carry them out when he is confronted by a lovely young woman, looking exasperatingly beantiful, and piercing his very heart with a glance of pitiful entreavy. Such a sad, sweet face too! What a shame that fortune should deal so hardly with her. So instead of reading her a lecture on the impropriety of her conduct, he found hiuself holding both the girl's hands in his and drawing her to him with a fatherly riage; under the big apple trees long "I was so surprised to hear you were come," she said, in shy. soft lines of tables we e spread with

"I think I am glad—nay, I will say I am sure I am glad, C uptin Win throp." I will say the sure of the were glad too."

to our union, our happiness is indeed married state, and heart, from father, mother, sister, brother, aunt and "Ho-ho," the Captain chuckled, all the world You two, with God's 'so the young dog has been making help, build your own quiet world.

Every third or fourth one whom you And quite forgetting the young lady draw into it with you will form a parwho was hurrying her preparations ty and stand between you two. up-stairs, he slipped out at the door Promise this to each other. Promise this to each other. Re and sped to the nearest telegraph new the vow at each temptation the "Sun" and the "World." office, whence he telegraphed a mes- You will find you account in it. sage to his son in Indianapolis: Your souls will grow, as it were, together, and at last will become as one. 'Come at once to the Grand Union Ah, if many a young pair nad on their transacted; a number of Presidential nom-Tuen he sheepishly returned to the wedding-day known this secret, how inations were confirmed in extensive ses lodging-house, and never so much as many marriages would be happier sion; it is expected that the special session hinted to the young lady the desper- than, alas, they are now !

SOMETHING THAT STAYS.

[Dr Cyrus A. Bartol.] Foi our guide in life we want A favorable report has been made upon the Thirty hours afterwards father and gunboat Yorktown; she has been comson were clasping hands in the office something that our passions or fanpleted in accordance with the contract. cies cannot alter, our fingers cannot "What is it dad?" the young man touch: as we need not a mechanical asked, eagerly. "You cannot tell have been summoned before the Inter-State instrument alone, but the north star Commerce Commisssion on Tuesday, and the sidereal time of the heavens, the least I thought was that you to direct us on an earthly voyage. April 20th, for the purpose of showing might he sick, or in some scrape or Conscience, independent of religion. what their export rates are and how the other. What in the name of consome are made and published. of God's will, is not enough; all his. science brought you to New York!" tory., in every land, shows it is not Fourteen of the largest paper makers in "Just a little matter of business. enough. It is but like a lantern on England have formed a syndicate, with a Harry, that's all: but I felt I couldn't the vess l's mast, casting a little light capital of $2,000,000, for the purpose of conclude it without your assistance. around, but swaying and turning with raising prices. Robert Sigel, son of In fact, there's a person now in the every motion of the waves, or eclipsed Gen Sigel, has been sentenced to six years' ladies' room I want you to secby the tempest, and incapable of ilimprisonment in New York for forgery would you mind stepping in there? luming the whole course. The sailor of pension checks. An express car on must look beyond his candle to the the Atlantic & Pacific Railroad, was rifled If the clerk of the hotel had steady, ever-shining pole. And chanced to notice the portly figure while we move in the varying light of of his guest when his son left nim, of our own mind, and keep that inner he would have had grave doubts of indispensable lamp carefully trimmed his sanity, for it is not usual for old and burning, we must supply its de gentlemen to walk about grinning ficiencies from the bright, high oracles and chuckling and every now and of God in Jesus Christ. then slapping their thighs in a perfect ecstacy of uncontrollable de-Anonymous light. Presently he conquered his "There," said a neighbor, pointing to a village carpenter, 'there is a man emotions and walked demurely upwho has done more good, I really bestairs into the ladies' receptionlieve, in this community than any

DOING GOOD.

"Well, Hurry, how's business? other person who ever lived in it. Have you and the other party come | He cannot talk very much in public, and he does not try. He is not worth Harry Winthrop seized his father's $2,000, and it is very little he can hand. There was the same glad, put down on subscription papers. But a new family never moves into had missed for many a day, and his the village that he does not find it heart thrilled with joy to think that out, and gives them a neighborly at last there was no bother between welcome and offer tuem some service.

"YE NEXTE THYNGE." J. R. Miller.1

If not even one little step is plain the Captain had insisted on its taking to us. "ye nexte thynge" is to wait. place at once in New York, as he arsometimes that is God's will for us. ued that it would be awkward for At least, it never is his will that we Kate to go back to the Orchard Farm should take a step into the darkness. as a visitor; and you may be sure He never hurries us. We had better Harry offered no obstacles to his an always wait than rush on when we rangements, though I am free to conare not quite sure of the way. Often fess Kate made a blushing objection in our impatience we do rash things, to the hurried ceremony, which was which we find after a little were not so transparently insincere that it did God's "nexte thynges" for us at all. That was Peter's mistake when he cut Then the Captain sent the yourg off a man's ear in the garden, and it couple off for a week's trip to the led to sore trouble and humiliation a seaside, and started home to tell little later. There are many quick, Martha how effectually he had stopimpulsive people who are continually doing "next things" wrong, and who then find their next thing trying to There were grand doings at the undo the last. We must always wait Orchard Farm. From far and near for God, and never take a step which the guests had come by boat and car. he has not made light for us,

A PROBLEM. Rev. T. Campbell Finlayson. It is one of the problems of life

snowy cloths and laden with the "And so glad. my pretty- say you "And so glad. my pretty- say you vere glad too." which are cut all in one with the previous week. Copper body of the chemise. The drawers Dispensary Medical Association, of trust and hope amid the knowledge has become a political factor in France, are cut straight; no longer gathered Buffalo, N. Y., in D.: Pierce's Famitones. KENTUCKY MULES blown away from the cannon. en-route to Cuba. William O'Brien On the day of the execution the has refused to accept his liberty on coudi-

"Parson Jones, I'se gwine have my troops were drawn up. Eaglish and boy larn writin' Where am a good Sepoys, the guas were loaded, and writin' school?" "What for yah have the prisoners led forth to suffer the him larn writin', Brer Beans?" "'Case terrible penalty.

The word of command was given I see by de papers how W. D. Howells for the first four criminals to be tied git ten tousan' dollah a yeah, and all he up to the muzzles of the guns. As do is write fur it. It pays, to write a the men were being bound, fcur good han', Pahson."

tall, stately gren diers stepped from Citizen (to Uncle Rastus): "S) that i among the condemned Sepoys, the woman you're going to marry, is it. saluted the commander, Major Uncie Rastus?" Uncle Rastus: "Yes, Hector Munro, chief of the Bengal sah, dat am de lady. She yain't much to army, and asked that as they had always held the post of honor in look at." Citizen: "Well, no, not very much, Uncle Rastus," Uncle Rastus life, they might be given the precedence in death, as it was their due. "But she hab got foh y seb in dollahs in The request was granted. The de bank, boss, an' she hab promised to grenadiers were tied to the guns and gib be de power eb attorney-general blown to pieces. ship."

A murmur ran through the Sepoy A Kentucky gentleman, who recently hattalions, who greatly outnumbercame to Washington to consult with his ed the English troops, and it seemed member of Cong ess about an office under as if they were about to resoue their the new administration, was asked by a companions-the twenty condemned gentleman from Boston whether it is men

The officers of the native regi-ments approached Munro, and told are so very Bibulous. "Bibulous!" said him that their men were not to be the Kentucken -"bibulous! I don't reckon trusted, as they had determined not you could find a dozen Bibles in the to permit the execution to proceed. whole state." The chief knew that on the issue of

The daughter of a San Francisco nab ib that parade for execution depended about to leave home for Europe, made the fate of the Bengal army. out a telegraphic code an I gave it to he The English troops were few, and father. The millionaire d'da't look at i there was scarcely a man among been found guilty of throwing dynamice them not moved to tears by the fear but locked it up in his desk. Lis. week ful death of the four grenadiers. he got a telegram from her. It consisted But the commander knew they could of one word-"Lugh" He lughel. be trusted to defend the guns, which His code was at the house. He went up turned upon the Sepoys, would dethere in the best of hum or. He got out feat any attempt to rescue their the code and he read: "Laugh-send me comrades. $500." Then he didu't laugh. Answered .- Night Drug Clerk (2 A. M., facturers, and at a meeting determined to Major Munro closed the English stick out to the last. A bloody trageon to the battery-the greasdiers on dy is reported from Topeka, Kansas; two the one side, the marines on the men quarrelled over the rent of a house other-and loaded the pieces with which resulted in both of them being grape. Then he sent the Sepoy officers back to their battalion, and killed. One of the agents engaged in carrying negroes from this State to Missisgave the native regiments the word s.ppi, was arrested at Greensboro, charged of command, "Ground arms!" They knew it would be madness with enticing pands away who were engaged to work by the year; he was carried to disobey in the presence of the > arms "Right about face! For ward-

Mr. Testy. - "Well, I dunno It's prethard work sometimes for a man to realize The native troops were at Munro's that his wife is the same woman he once went crazy over."

with glaring eyes). "Well?"

enough to retire from business."

AMBITION'S GOAL.

Friend .- "What are you going to do?"

'I am going to buy the old farm that I ran

City Business Man .- "At last I am rich

Customer. - "No: sick!"

sway from and live on it."

Hayes's History of the Sepoy War.

Here is some very interesting information from Paris, funnished by isfied himself of the universal safisfac the London Young Lidies' Journal. tion given by his products, that he

TO ADERTISERS A list of 1000 newspapers divided into HTATES and SECTIONS will be seal on application

To those who want then advertising to pay We can offer no better institutn for thorough and effective work than the various sections of our Selected Local List. GEO. P. ROWELL & CO., Newspaper Advertising Bureau, 5114 10 Spruce street, New York,

THE TARBORO GRADEO SCHOOL.

This School c mes to the ront with a THOROUGA COMPETEN! AND EXPE-BLENCED CORPS OF TE/ DHERS, a hand-

RIENCED CORPS OF TE/ OHERS, a hand-some new building, the lat st improved fur-siture and apparatus. at a offers superior advantages in every respect to those wieling to obtain a good praticeal sducation. Those who anticipate teaching are offered Special Oppertunities by Prof Grimsley, the Principal, who is a griduate of the Normal College University, of Nashville, Tennesse, and has had nuch experience in Graded Schools, Institute and Normol work. Those who complete the course will be graduated who complete the course will be graduated and receive a diploma as evidence of the fact

For further information apply to, N. M. LAWRENCE,)

H. MORRIS, - Com. W. L. BARLOW.

A LIBERAL OFFER.

An artistic twelve page Cu on mr. teanti fully decorated with highly finised water-colored pictures representing the four reas ons -Winter, Spring, Summa and Fall-will be sent FREE to any percon who sends six cents for asample copy of the New York An Ordinary Case .- Mrs. Testy (looking up from the paper). "Isn't this strange? A Californian, after a fit of illness, was absolutely unable to remember his wife, and did not believe she was the edger. Address

Robert Bonner's Sons, Publishers, 175 WILLIAM STREET, No.y York City

MULES AND HORSES. I Have Returned with Several Car Loads Of

Associate Justice Stanly Matthews died Washington at 10:05 o'clock he suffered intense pain in his last hours, and an optate bein; administered for his relief he ded in a state of semi-c nsciousness. The City Hall buildings in Dover, N. H., were destroyed by fire, which included all of the city offices, court room and opera house; the in default of $200 bail.

10ss is very heavy, with only $25,000 insurance; a number of firemen were seriou-ly injured during the progress of the to Raileigh, found guilty, and placed in jai loaded guns, and laid down their

The Sepoys marched a distance march!" was the next command. The death of Justice Matthews, of the the Supreme Court, was announced in the from their grounded arms, the En-Senate, when, out of respect to the deglish soldier, with guns, took ground ceased, an aujournment was ordered. ...

one he married." on the intervening space. The danger had passed away.

mercy, and the execution went on to its drea Ifal close. The sacrifice of a few lives saved thousande .--

A Severe Test' When a manufacturer, from years of observation, has so co ppletely sat fire. Two men were hung in Minne- In underclothing the Directoire style feels fully warranted in selling them apolis for the murder of a car driver reigns in full force. The fine cam- under a certificate of guarantee, it is The areasury surplus now amounts to $50,- bric chemise is made so as to set very natural to believe that such a 200,000, or $5,000,000 more than it was close to the figure without one producer has implicit confidence in ten days ago. Business failures dur. pleat; it is embroidered round the the merits of his goods, and that, too, ing the past week number 249, against which are cut all in one with the fidence is possessed by the World's