Thanksgiving Observed. If one of those early New Englanders had lived down Thursday, he would have seen that every one was observing Thanksgiving, not in the regular Puritan style, but taking note of it, to go to church, to go hunting, to go sailing, after he had put in a small mite to help the orphans.

Our State is moving along to the front in caring for the orphans. The churches and the fraternal orders have their orphan asylums and on this day when Providence is to be thanked and praised for blessings and bounty the orphans are asked to be remembered.

They were: The Missionary Baptist church led off with the largest money contribution, $70 and some cents. Then came the other denominations in order we cannot name because there were other contributions promised. Suffice it to say all were generous, and if that old New Englander like Roger Williams and his ilk could have been down here he would have been shocked at the number of people who went hunting and then gazed over the money and wearing apparel that the good women and kindly hearted men of Edgecombe had contributed to make the lot of the orphan better and more comfortable.

Still those old witch burners, if they could have been present, they would have seen full churches and sermons redolent of God's loving kindness without a word of hell and damnation. They would have heard Rev. R. B. John, P. E. Rev. C. V. Brooks, and Rev. F. H. Harding, all praising God for "whom all blessing flow," and inviting all to the seat of mercy which was and is upholstered in God's love. All kindness, all love, no fear, no terror.

Some of us did not attend these meetings where we could have been instructed, but we were not necessarily absent in spirit. The outing meant no disrespect, but most probably a grateful remembrance during the day that, out of our abundance we had given and in our outing we gave praise and thanks.

The day was all that could have been asked by any man anywhere, and those New Englanders would have found no place or countenance for long faces. Then there were dinners, family reunions and invited friends, these supplemented what the good men had said in their pulpits. 'Twas good cheer, God bless you. If those old witch burners could have dropped down here, they would have put on their long faces and said "the Cavaliers have turned into saints." So, so, but we all enjoyed Thanksgiving Day, and are only regretful that it is nearly 12 months off now.

Outwits the Surgeon. A complication of female troubles, with catarrh of the stomach and bowels, had reduced Mrs. Thos. S. Austin, of Leavenworth, Ind., to such a deplorable condition, that her doctor advised an operation; but her husband fearing fatal results, postponed this and tried Electric Bitters; and to the amazement of all who knew her, this medicine completely cured her. Guaranteed cure for torpid liver, kidney disease, biliousness, jaundice, chills and fever, general debility, nervousness and blood poisoning. Best tonic made. Price 50c at Station & Zoeller's drug store. Try it.

A Russian paper says Witt remains in Russia at the peril of his life. It seems to us that it is true of anybody who remains in Russia.—Staunton Dispatch.

A Texas Wonder. There's a Hill at Bowie, Tex., that's twice as big as last year. This wonder is W. L. Hill, who from a weight of 90 pounds has grown to over 180. He says: "I suffered with a terrible cough, and doctors gave me up to die of consumption. I was reduced to 90 pounds, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Now, after taking 12 bottles, I have more than doubled in weight and am completely cured." Only sure Cough and Cold cure. Guaranteed by Station & Zoeller, the Druggists 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Something You Didn't Know. There are about 12,000 watches made in this country every day—just think of it, 72,000 every week. You thought just about every person had a watch, didn't you? Watches are being made better every year—many people are trading off their old ones and getting something better, and you should remember, too, that people of almost every country in the world are buying American goods. If your watch doesn't suit you, drop in and let me show you the latest styles in watches—you'll want one. Bell The Jeweler.

Pounded and Impounded. Easy tempered, genial, Rev. C. M. Brooks is now having a time. He has something that Hercules never had assigned to him in labors, the quantity of food from meat to cake, that the good citizens of this vicinity, and especially of the Missionary Baptist church have carried to his house for him and his to devour.

They pounded him, Thanksgiving Day, and then impounded him. This earnest man of God is scarcely larger than they say of St. Paul, but had he been Goliath there was enough of good things, kind remembrances, to have covered him beyond recognition, but they did not pile it on him. They carried it to him, and today he is struggling how he and his family can in a month or more surround what was received and remain out of the hospital.

Good kindly hearts prompted the gifts and the grateful recognition is limited by gastric ability as the physical man goes but that soul side, that mental appreciation for the kindly remembrances, the Southerner has not the words to express his appreciation, and neither does it believe has Mr. Brooks.

To Improve Water. The Board of Public Works under the advice of an engineer ascertained that the town could obtain an abundant supply of underground water, thus avoiding the necessity of going to the river. But there is still a serious defect in our water, wholesome though it be.

There is a vegetable growth that causes the pipes to clog and make the water muddy and otherwise disagreeable at the "dead ends." A remedy for this that can be found, or it is only a question of a short time when the town will be bound to look for a different source of supply.

It has been suggested, and it seems with good reason, that pumping the water into a reservoir and then filtering it into another compartment before forcing up into the tank would remove these objections.

We hope the authorities will obtain some expert opinions on this.

Reservoirs, such as needed for this purpose need not be so large, and hence the cost will not be so great, nothing in comparison to moving the pumping plant to the river and laying new connecting mains.

There is a growing demand throughout the town for water and if water is free from the objections named in a short time, nearly every house would be supplied with it and the town would be doing a profitable business, sufficiently so to reduce rates.

For Importing Labor. Colonel H. C. Cowles, of Statesville, clerk of the United States District Court, has issued summonses for Thomas M. Costello, Edward A. Smith, S. B. Sargent and E. C. Dwello, to appear in the Federal court December 10th, to answer to the charge of having violated the contract labor laws in the importation of a number of English mill operatives. This action was taken at the instance of United States District Attorney A. E. Holtou, of Winston-Salem.

Within the past few months there have come into Piedmont Carolina, in all between 80 and 90 mill operatives from the Lancashire district of England. Inspector A. F. Laughlin has placed 32 of these under arrest. Their evidence has been taken down, and they are being detained until the government decides how to act.

The cotton mill men have employed counsel, and there is the promise of a battle royal in the courts. The mill men assert that they have not violated the law.

To the Peanut Growers. Gilbert T. Stephenson, Secretary of the Peanut Growers of North Carolina is out in a letter to the growers.

He first tells of the recent convention at Suffolk and then calls attention to the fact that the growers of peanuts are not fully organized, only two in counties in this State and two in Virginia are they. While in the Spanish pea section there are only two local, here and there. He urges that interest be not allowed to wane.

"A difficulty that we shall encounter is to keep up interest in the Locals. We have been enthusiastic over the price for the 1906 crop. Now that that has been set, however of the reaction, the Locals were not organized for this year alone. They are permanent bodies. Therefore, let us see that they do not go into winter and summer quarters, it will be desperately hard to revive them next fall. It is true that the greater part of the talk of the price of 1906 is over. But are there not other questions of equal interest to the farmers? Are you not interested in the best methods of working your land by tenants or by hired labor? Are you interested in the best system of crop rotation? Are you not interested in the labor problem? Are there not a hundred things which concern the farmer vitally? These are the questions that we have at Severn, Northampton Co., N. C., a Programme Committee that selects subjects for discussion at each meeting. The experiment has been very encouraging. The farmers get so interested in the discussion that they refuse to adjourn until it is sunset. No one man knows everything. It may be that a small farmer has ideas which he could apply if he only had a chance. He may give the idea to the larger farmer who can apply them, and vice versa. These discussions are bound to be interesting and helpful. My plea is that we make the Local the center of the social life of the farmer of the community. I believe that this is the only way for us to keep life in it until the fall comes again and we prepare to fix the price of the crop of 1907.

"Finally, we must complete our organization. I have already said that that half the field has been covered. This must not be the case long. If there is a community near your home that needs organizing can you not call the farmers together, tell them of the American Society of Equity and the Peanut Growers' Association, and organize a Local? If you cannot do this, will you not write to the County Organizer and help him to arrange a meeting in that community? If you live in a County which is poorly organized, will you not send me the names of the places that should be organized and the addresses of five or six of the leading peanut growers in each community so that I can take some steps to get an organizer in to the field? Will you not do some thing to push the work?

Members of the Peanut Growers' Association, you have elected me your secretary. I pledge you that so long as I hold this office, I shall devote my energy to making this organization a success. But I cannot succeed without your constant support and co-operation. I want local organizers in every peanut growing county in North Carolina and Virginia. Help me to find suitable persons and send me their names and addresses. Let each member do his level best, and this association is bound to be a success."

"If you please, mum," said the ancient hero, in an appealing voice, as he stood at the back door of the cottage on wash day, "I've lost my key."

"Well, I ain't got it," snapped the woman fiercely. And the door closed with a bang.—Kansas City Post.

New Cure for Epilepsy. J. B. Waterman, of Waterbury, O., Rural free delivery, writes: "My daughter, afflicted for years with epilepsy, was cured by Dr. King's New Life Pills. She has not had an attack for over two years." Best body cleanser and life giving tonic pills on earth. 25c at Station & Zoeller's drug store.

Weak Women To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to be well. But with that key, one must know how to use it. One is lost one is contented. Dr. King's New Life Pills are essential. Dr. King's Restorative, the Constitutional. The Restorative is a blood purifier and a general tonic. It gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up the system, and gives strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. King's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—in a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well.

Dr. Shoop's Night Cure (ALL DEALERS) WANTED—10,000 lbs of beeswax, wool, and feathers. J. Zan. dar.

Home Election Figures. The State canvassing board finds that in the recent election Claude Kitchin for member of Congress for this district received 10,057 votes and Jas. E. Gaskill 1,816. Mr. Gaskill's vote is a small one, but we are inclined to the belief that he polled a larger percentage of the republican vote than any other candidate on the republican ticket for Congress.

With one county missing the Democratic majority in the State is 46,000, the Democrats polling 123,000 and the republicans 77,000.

DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills quickly drive the poisons from the system and thus afford relief. A week's treatment for 25 cents. Sold by R. E. L. Cook.

Looking After Comfort For Passengers. The corporation commission directs that the Atlantic Coast Line will within 90 days build a new depot at Jacksonville where the old station was burned. It is also ordered that the Seaboard Air Line shall build a station at Phoenix, adequate to the needs of passengers this point being in Brunswick county. The same road is also ordered to provide separate waiting rooms and enlarge the freight depot at Council, in Bladen county.

Did anyone suggest that the commission be asked to order a waiting shelter at the lower railroad stop in this place?

Champion Turnip Grower. R. F. Shelton, one of the prosperous and progressive farmers of the county, won the prize of five dollars in gold, offered by W. H. Macnair, for the largest half dozen turnips. They weighed 25 pounds.

J. W. Stokes, of St. Lewis, had the second largest half dozen that weighed 34 1/4.

G. T. Deberry, the hustling truck farmer here, had a half dozen that weighed 21 3/4.

Open the bowels—DeWitt's Little Early Busters are recommended and sold by R. E. L. Cook.

Good Behavior and Thanksgiving. Governor Glenn presented two Thanksgiving pardons to prisoners at the penitentiary with the best records, in accordance with a custom begun last year of pardoning one white and one colored convict each Thanksgiving. The white man pardoned is James Branch, who has served ten years of a thirty years' sentence, from Ashe county, for murder. A man by the name of Osborne was sentenced at the same time to twenty years for implication in the same murder, and four years later Governor Russell pardoned him.

The solicitor of that judicial district, who prosecuted in the trials of both men, called on Governor Glenn and told him he believed the guiltiest man had already been pardoned. The negro pardoned is Conrad Perry, who had served ten years of a fifteen years' sentence, from Warren county, for burning an out-house. Superintendent Mann, of the penitentiary specially requested that Perry receive the pardon.

Now let Governor Glenn in his mercy dispensing not forget Christmas.

From Bird to Buck. Thanksgiving, Tom Staston and P. U. Lawrence went bird hunting on the Lipscomb track about a mile from here on the Coast Line's Plymouth branch. Going through a reed marsh, they walked upon a deer, a two year old buck. Lawrence shot first first, then both opened with a rapid and galling fire and soon had their game struggling in the agonies of death. It probably has been many years since a wild deer was not over a mile from the corporate limits of the town.
