ABSENTEE LANDLORDISM.

Editor Southerner:

Is it not a lame cause that resorts to such specious pleading as that you used in effort to refute my protest against the so largely turning the county over to an unintelligent husbandry? I am not opposed to the crop or share system, where there is fitness, but my protest is against universality, to the well high exclusion of a superintendence of those fitted for it.

M. J. BATTLE.

The Southerner employed no specious pleading with Mr. Battle. He compared Edgecombe to Haiti; and asserted that the boycott was resorted to on the landowner if he lived on his farm. The Southerner denied this, and endeavored to show that it was wrong.

When Mr. Battle writes of the wisdom of "turning the county over to an unintelligent husbandry," we are with him, but this has not occurred in Edgecombe. On a number of farms in the county for various reasons, this has been done. It was unfortunate, and as Mr. Battle says, unwise, but mayhap it was the best choice in charge, thought they could do.

The landowner who turns his farm over to an unintelligent, non progressive tenantry, is damaging his own property, and decreasing his income. But we do not know of any one who has done this from choice or that the evil is growing.

THE COST OF LIVING.

Love is the cost of living—pay it and go your way;
Love is the cost of the bloomy place of rest at the end of day;
Love is the cost of living—begrudge and thief and king
Pay it for life that is all of life, the true and the only thing!

Love is the cost of living—the green-girt hills are thine,
The low, sweet vale with the bird and bloom, the bough and the tangled vine;
The murmur of many waters, the cool of the calm, grave wood,
The wide domain of the simple fields with their noble and quiet good!

Love is the cost of living—and only Love's service can buy
The day by day of the tender way that leads to a starry sky;
That leads to the toil at morning, and home to the sweet, sweet night,
Wild dream and rest on a faithful breast till the rose-dawn blooms in light! —Baltimore Sun.

THE LIMERICK CRAZE.

There was once a person, named Bendix,
Who got something in his appendix
And he said: "Without doubt I must cut this thing out,
For there isn't any other rhyme available."
This person was laid on the table,
And a surgeon considered quite able,
In a manner most deft
Slashed him right a d left—
What miserable weather we're having.

BABY SMOTHERED.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine is cloudy, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as some people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle supplied free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Mrs. Watkins, of Farmville, who had been visiting her sisters in Rocky Mount, was taken to Norfolk in a dying condition. It was not expected she would live to reach her destination. Dr. Whitehead, of Rocky Mount accompanied her. Mrs. Watkins has been a frequent visitor to Tarboro.

Miss Sue Baker is at home from Peace Institute on a brief visit.
