Thenceforth the work of the Church, to "build one another up in is prom the most holy faith," gave place to the unscriptural course of neglecting the Church and laboring for the world, under the unwarranted assumption that it acroplane Hamilton has embodied all is the duty of the Church to convert the world. As to how much lajury has the improvements needed for making thus been done it is difficult to estimate. For the sake of numbers standards have been lowered and worldliness has been recognized, until today Christendom is in a sad plight as respects true doctrines and high moral standards.

As Meestah is to be the Great King of earth during the period of his Mediatorial reign, it is the Father's good pleasure that he should have a "Bride." And this Gospel Age is set spart for the finding and development of this Bride class of many members. The Kingdom is the great prize which the Father is to bestow upon his Son-to be shared by the Church, the Bride of Christ. The parable of today's Study outlines the call of this Bride class or Kingdom class from Jesus' day down to the completion and giorification of this company. Nowhere is Jesus represented as calling his own Bride. This is hown in Abraham, who typified the Father, and Isaac, who typified Jesus; and Abraham's servant, sent to call Rebecca to be the Bride of Isaas, typified the holy Spirit, whose work during this Gospel Age is bringing to Christ the Bride class-"the very elect."

Our Study states that the wedding was furnished with guests-good and bad. In other words, the offer of a share with Christ in his Kingdom has attracted some has attracted some asturally very fallen, as well as some better favored by nature. But the arits of the Great King are such that the "wedding garment" covers all takes of the most imperfect as well as those of the least imperfect.

The latter part of our Study shows a discrimination and judgment ultisately to take place amongst those invited to the wedding and accepted. As enter in without a wedding garment-without an acknowledgment of the merit of Christ's sacrifice-so none will be permitted to remain and participate in the wedding festival except those who maintain their standing of confidence in Christ. Any who take off the "wedding garment" will be sure to be expelled from the privileges enjoyed and will go out from the light and blessings afforded to this favored class, into the "outer darkness" of the world and of nominal Christianity, in which abortly there will be a great time of trouble, symbolically represented by the "weeping and guashing of tooth."
