THE SHEEP AND THE GOATS

Matthew 25:31-46—October 16

"Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

PREVIOUS studies have pointed us to the Kingdom and incited the Lord's people to strive to become members thereof—kings and priests unto God in association with the Redeemer. Today's study tells of the Kingdom, but from another standpoint. It explains the work of the Kingdom after it shall have been set up—after Messiah at his Second Advent shall have gathered his "Jewels" to constitute his Bride class—after these shall be with him in the Throne of his glory—after he shall have taken unto himself his great power and shall have begun his Messianic reign of righteousness "under the whole heaven." It is important in every study of the Scriptures that we recognize the Divine Plan as a whole and properly locate the teaching of each parable.

We know that the parable of the sheep and the goats belongs not to this Age, but to the coming Age of Mes-siah's glorious reign, because the introduction declares this, saying, "When the Son of man shall come in his glory and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the Throne of his glory, and before him shall be gathered all nations; and he shall separate them one from another as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats." Those sheep and goats will not include the Church, to whom the promise is,
"When he shall appear, we shall also appear with him in glory"—sharing his Throne.

The salvation of the Church will be finished before the salvation of the world will begin. Today's study pictures the salvation of the world, showing us how every member of Adam's race will be on trial during the reign of Messiah and, by his obedience or disobedience to the light and knowledge then prevailing, he will be deciding his own everlasting future, either as a sheep or as a goat. It will require the entire one thousand years of Messiah's reign to complete the testing and separating work.

All then obedient will be recognized as children of God and brethren. All the disobedient will be reckoned as children of the Adversary and worthy to share his fate, because, under favorable conditions, they were rebellions. Such shall be destroyed with Satan in the Second Death, which is symbolically represented as fire, because fire is always destructive, never preservative. On the contrary, the sheep class at the conclusion of Mes-siah's reign will have reacted perfect-and restored by his Messianic reign, for which we pray, "Thy Kingdom come; thy will be done on earth as in heaven."

As for the "goat" class, we have already intimated that their punishment will consist of destruction in fire, or destruction everlasting, the Second Death—the destruction which God has already determined for Satan and all who are his messengers and servants, after the manner of this goat class—because, with all the favorable opportunities, they failed to develop such characters as God could reward with life everlasting. The contrast is emphasized in the last verse of the study.
These (the goat class) shall go away

Into eternal punishment; but the righteous, the sheep class, unto eternal life.
The contrast is perfect. The one gets life to all eternity. The other gets the specified punishment of destruction to all eternity. The Greek word here translated punishment is kolasis, which signifies restraint, cutting off—in this case cutting off from life—Second Death. "The wages (punishment) of sin is death."

Some one has well said:—
"Sow a thought and you reap an act; Sow an act and you reap a habit;
Sow a habit and you reap a character; Sow a character and you reap a destiny."

The Divine intention as respects the salvation of this Gospel Age and the salvation of the world during the coming Age is that only such as develop the God-like character shall be permitted to enjoy Divine favor to all eternity. God has determined that the time shall come when there shall be no more sifting, no more crying, no more dying; but instead, every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth shall be heard praising God and the Lamb.

Do Remember.
Do remember that you are married to a man and not a god; be prepared for imperfections.

Do anticipate the discovery by your husband that you are only a "woman" if you were not he would not care about you.

Do once in a while, let your husband have the last word; it will gratify him and be no particular loss to you.

Do be reasonable; it is a great deal to ask under some circumstances, but do try; reasonable women are rare—be rare.

Do remember that servants are made of the same material as you are a little coarser-grained, perhaps but the same in essence.

Do try and forget yourself; as for your husband and forget you married him and remember that he married you he will then probably do the reverse.

Do let him read the newspaper at the supper table; it is unbecoming, but then it's only a little after all.

Do let him know more than you do once in a while; it keeps up his self respect and you will be none the worse for admitting that you are not actually infallible.

West Point Cadetship.
Editor Southerner:
I will thank you to give notice through your paper to the young men of your county that on the 20th day of October 1910 at Rocky Mt. I will give a competitive examination to the young men between the ages of seventeen and twenty-two of the Second District for the appointment of a cadet to West Point. Anyone wishing to stand the examination is requested to write me his age, residence and politics. I will be glad to furnish him with all desired information concerning the examination and the appointment.
Claude Kitchin.

Small Pox.
There is a small pox at the Runnymeade mill, according to Dr. S. P.
Beas superintendent of Health. For some time there has been a disease among the residents of that section characterized by an eruption which has been diagnosed as chickenpox by several physicians. Today Dr. Beas found a case in which the eruption presented unmistakable signs of small pox. Energetic measures have already been instituted for the stamping out of the disease and will be pursued to the end.

All citizens are urged to be vaccinated as the disease is contagious and that is the only method of stopping it.

AFTER COTTON PICKERS.

A Daily Scramble for Women and Children to Gather the Crop.

It is worth the loss of the early morning nap to see the women that go out early every morning loaded with women and children to pick cotton on farms several miles away.
They are jolly crowds that go out and jolly ones that come back. The colored woman has during the year either done washing or cooking at something under 50 cents a day and she had to feed the kids.

When 40 cents for picking cotton are offered and she can pick 200 lbs. or more and then add to that what the children can do. It is not surprising that so many of them go to the cotton fields.

Some families or rather a mother and children make $10.00 a week depending on the industry of her prosperity, but cotton picking offers what it lacks remuneration, that blocks the laundry into a 20 cent piece with a hole in it.

So out they go, making cooks scarce and a laundress a rarity.

But for the colored woman and her children, but little cotton would be gathered on the big farms of the county.

A Class Deserving Credit.

Fifteen orphan boys in the mountains are soon to be happy. A large box, containing thirty suits of underwear, thirty pairs of stockings and other things for their comfort during the winter, has just been shipped them. The box will give them no greater pleasure than it has given the boys who have provided its contents and sent it. They are the members of the Covington Orphan Asylum, under the leadership of Mrs. H. T. Bryan, Mrs. S. N. Harrell and Mr. Geo. Howard.

They are twelve in number and are by name, Brooks Peters Jr.; Gillespie Smith; Joseph Howard; Bennett Povey; Russell Wagner; Willie Wagner; Russell Whitley; Walter Harris; Thomas Palley, Howard Joseph Joseph Savage and Charles Vinea. Only a few weeks ago these boys purchased a number of slightly used school text books and sent them to the orphan. They are planning further good work.

Still Growing.

New shares of stock continue to be subscribed for the new series which our building and loan associations began on first of the month.

The number of shares now approximate 1,100. The number should be a least 2,000 to meet the demands of prospective builders and homeowners.

Not a Candidate.

Editor Southerner:
I was nominated for Sheriff of Edgecombe County by the Republican Mass Meeting in Tarboro, Sept. 30th.

Please state while I am an independent voter, I am not a candidate for any office. Thanking the mass meeting for the honor and confidence bestowed upon me I beg to remain not a candidate.

Ten Things to Do this Month.

(1) Sow oats; begin wheat sowing; keep working all hands for these crops until ready to sow; treat seed, if amply with borax or formalin.

(2) Keep on plowing cover and pasture crops, vetch crimson clover rue and turnips.

(3) Gather in the corn; get the fodder or stover and all the hay possible under shelter or in good stacks.

(4) Keep the cotton picked as it ripens; put it under shelter after it is baled; in-boll weevil territory get ready to destroy the stalks as soon as possible.

(5) Prepare for the storing of winter vegetables and fruits; see it will not pay to build a potato house.

(6) Fix a shelter, if there is none for the farm tools and keep them in the dry neat winter.

(7) Push the hogs—they should be gaining rapidly now; give all young stock, especially the colts and the dairy calves special attention.

(8) Do some fall plowing; get out stumps and bushes; drain wet spots; prepare for better crops next year.

(9) Prepare to set out some fruit trees, also some berries and grapes; plant winter-growing vegetables.

(10) Look after the house and yard about some shabby and places; do needed repairs and painting; arrange a more convenient water supply for the coming winter—Progressive Farmer.

How the Reputed Bonds Were Is- sued.

Behind Mr. Butler's campaign for the capture of the next Legislature is believed to be the deep-laid purpose of the New York holders of reputed bonds of North Carolina to force their payment at this late day.
Indeed, a committee of these bondholders has written an interesting letter to the people of North Carolina threatening that if they are not paid, the State credit will be affected and raised by them and their allies. The letter written by Andrews was replied to by Capt. S.
A. Ashe recently, who gives the history of these bonds and shows how the scheme did their work. A full history of the episode will be sent to any one who will write to Democratic headquarters at Raleigh.

From this narration it will sufficiently appear that the acts authorizing the issue of these special tax bonds were conceived in sin and brought forth in iniquity. They were the fruits of a conspiracy to defraud, the result of bribery and corruption.

In 1866, North Carolina had an orderly and efficient government compete in every respect, existing under a Constitution that had been in force ever since 1776, one antedating the Federal Constitution. That Constitution and government was recognized lawful and regular by the President of the United States and by the Chief Justice; but in 1867 Congress annulled it against our protests and the protests of our President. The continuity of our government was thus broken; but "honest North Carolina" did not avail herself of that circumstance to avoid her just obligations. She has never ceased to recognize the obligation of her debts she herself had incurred.

Congress having overthrown our Constitution and government, established a military government over our people, directing the enrollment as voters of a part of her white population and all of the negro men.

These voters elected, under military supervision, delegates to a convention which framed a constitution, which provided for the election of State officers and members of a Legislature, all made white and black, of being alike voters.

This constitution was submitted to the limited number of voters the military had enrolled; and at the same time this limited number of voters, under military supervision elected State officers and members of the Legislature, about 18,000 members entitled to vote under the Constitution being disfranchised from enfranchisement called the Legislature together and appointed W. W.
Holden Governor, he having been voted for at the election. Governor Worth, the lawful Governor of the State, being compelled to vacate his office on July 1, 1868 filed a protest speaking for North Carolina and saying that he did not recognize the validity of the election as appears below. In the same month, the National Democratic party of the North declared that the government set up by Congress in North Carolina (and in other Southern States) was unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; and General Canby's Legislature, having been convoked on the 20th day of August, 1868, gave notice to the world that its authority as a lawful body was disputed, by a resolution.

At the election held in November, 1868 the great State of New York sustained, by a majority of ten thousand votes, the doctrine that the Reconstruction government established in North Carolina was revolutionary and a nullity. Certainly all the friends of North Carolina in New York City both that opinion and so declared by their votes. Every business man in New York was thus put on notice.

This Reconstruction Legislature soon fell under the dominion of a set of freebooters, their leader being Littlefield not a resident of the State, who entered at once on the business of gathering in the spoils. By Littlefield's orders, $250,000 was paid by sweep in cash to vic-tious members and to others interested; and a dig was formed who required that ten per cent of all bonds authorized should be paid to them.
Twenty-six million dollars of bonds were authorized; but before all had been issued, these securities fell to a few cents on the dollar.

Eventually these matters of corruption were fully investigated and some honest members of the Legislature, on February 20, 1870 repealed all acts authorizing the issue of State bonds.

North Carolina has never recognized any obligation to pay these special tax bonds, and indeed in 1889 by an amendment to the State Constitution, the General Assembly was expressly forbidden to pay any money on these bonds without first submitting the matter to the people of the State. This amendment was adopted by almost a unanimous vote, the vote being 117,235 for, and only 5,458 against the amendment. The same unanimity will exist. North Carolina will never recognize these bonds as the obligations.

GET A LIBRARY.

If You Have One Just Get Bigger and Enlarge It.

To the School Commissioners of Edgecombe County:
Raleigh, Sept. 16 1910.

"This is to remind you that your county is entitled to 3 Original Libraries and 4 Supplemental Libraries in addition to what you have already received of the 1908-1910 appropriation for libraries. You must apply for these libraries before the 30th of November, or your county and your school children will have this much.

"We hope you will make an effort to secure these libraries for your people.

J. Y. JOYNER,
Supt. of Public Instruction.

Your attention is called to the above notice for the reason that your county superintendent wishes your active assistance in locating these schools in the county that have not the libraries which are due them. In so far as we can, we must get for the children of Edgecombe county every good thing. The loss of these libraries will be a very positive loss to your pupils.

Whenever the patrons and friends of any public school in which a library has not already been established by the aid of the State shall raise by private subscription and tender to the treasurer of the county school fund for the establishment of such library to be connected with such school the sum of ten dollars, the county board of education shall appropriate from the general county school fund the sum of ten dollars for this purpose, and the state board of education shall thereupon contribute ten dollars and so the original library is secured.

To secure a supplemental library it is necessary to raise by private subscription five dollars, to which is added five from the county and five from the State.

Let us improve the equipment of our schools by adding to it all the good books that can be had.

Very respectfully,
W. H. FITTMAN,
Supt.
