"GLORY TO GOD IN THE HIGHEST" December 25

"For unto you is born this day in the City of David a Son, which is Christ the Lord."—Isaiah 9:1.

GOD'S promise that the Seed of Abraham should ultimately bless all nations has influenced thought the world over, but particularly amongst those nations living contiguous to Abraham's home and northward and westward from there, in the directions in which the message of Divine favor has gone. At first the Jews thought of this promise as being fulfilled in them as a nation—that, with-out assistance from on High, they could approve themselves to God through obedience to the Law Covenant, and that they, as instructors of the world, they would teach all nations to keep that Divine Law, and thus bring the world to the blessed state of perfection. Divine favor and life everlasting. This hope was crushed out as they found themselves unable to keep the Law, going down into death, instead of attaining to perfection of life. Even Moses, the special servant of God, could not, and did not, attain the blessing of the Law.

Then God made them the promise of some better thing—a greater Mediator and of a more successful Covenant through that Mediator. The Mediator of the New Covenant (Jer. 31:31-34) was to be greater than Moses; shall the Lord your God raise up unto you from amongst your brethren like unto me (but greater—himself shall hear in all things whatsoever he shall speak unto you. And it shall come to pass that the soul that will not obey that Prophet shall be destroyed from amongst the people." (Acts 3: 22, 23).

"The Desire of All Nations" As surrounding nations and those afar off heard of Israel's hopes—that in their world would come a great Savior, Deliverer, who would bless them and exalt them in the world and through them bless all peoples, the beauty of the thought took in every direction. Messiah was more or less looked for under various names, and the glories of his Kingdom were pictured by heathen poets as the Golden Age.

Thus it happened that when our Lord was born, when he was made flesh and dwelt amongst us, "All men were in expectation of him"—not of Jesus, but of the promised Messiah, whom Jesus was. Thus it was that wise men in the East were attracted to see and to worship him that was also that of the Jews. Thus it was also that during Jesus' ministry certain Greeks came to the disciples saying, "Sirs, we would see Jesus." They had heard of him and recognized that in some respect his magic power implied a relationship with the long-expected Messiah. And so it was with the multitude of Palestine. They heard; they listened. They said, "Is this he? The messiah said, No, this is not the Messiah. Then the people asked, When Messiah cometh can he do greater works than this man? Never man spoke like this man!

Nevertheless, there were few ready to receive him, even amongst his own— "I believe indeed," to whom, because of their unbelief, he said, "You shall see no sign, and you shall not believe." (John 4:48.) Neither Jews nor Greeks nor Persian wise men knew to expect that Messiah would first appear to offer himself, through obedience to the Truth, a living sacrifice for sinners. None of them knew that a long period must elapse from the time when Messiah would be the man of sorrows and acquainted with grief, of whom the people would be ashamed, until he would appear in power and great glory to establish his Empire under the whole heavens, in fulfillment of the prophetic picture of Daniel 2:34; 7:13, 14-27.

Few understand God's great secret or "mystery" hidden during past ages and dispensations (Col. 1:26), that, during this long period of the Gospel Age a saintly "little flock" would be selected from amongst men to be Messiah's Bride; and joint-heir with him in his Messianic reign. Few see that this little flock" has been selected during these nineteen centuries from every nation, people, kindred and tongue, and that they are all saints, in the spirit of their minds, at least, and following the Lamb, withersoever he goeth, walking in the footsteps of Jesus. Few understand that, as soon as these joint-sacrificers with the Master shall have filled up the measure of afflictions appointed, then the Kingdom of glory will be revealed and all flesh shall see it together and all shall be blessed by it.

A Savior—Christ the Lord. It was prophetically, of course, that the Babe of Bethlehem was called a Savior—he was to be a Savior, the Christ, the Lord. But as the Babe he was none of these. He became the Christ before becoming the Savior and Lord. The word Christ signifies anointed. In the Divine purpose it was arranged that Messiah should be anointed High Priest of Israel on a higher plane than Aaron under the order of Melchisedec. (Psalms 110:4.) And every priest must be anointed to his office before he could fill it. Similarly, it was prophesied that Christ would be the great King, greater than David and Solomon, who were his types and forebears.

The anointing of Jesus was not with literal oil, but with that which oil symbolizes—the Holy Spirit. He received this Holy Spirit at a time of his baptism, the Spirit falling upon him for his great work of anointing the Priest and antitypical King of Israel, who, as the Messiah long-anticipated, would bless them, and through them, to the glory of God the Father. And every priest was ordained to offer both gifts and sacrifices for sin; and in this also they typified Jesus, who, under the Divine arrangement, must first offer up himself as a sacrifice acceptable to God for the sin of mankind—in order that he might be the Savior or Deliverer of men from the curse of sin and death—that he might restore them and their earthly home to the glorious condition of perfection represented in Adam and his Eden home. Hence it was necessary that Jesus should not only consecrate his life to the Divine service and be anointed with the Holy Spirit, but that, sacrificially, he should lay down his life, even unto death—even the death of the cross. As a part of his reward he was raised to glory, honor and immortality, on the third day thereafter.

As the glorified One he was now fully commissioned and empowered to establish the long-promised Messianic Kingdom, but has been waiting while a "little flock" have walked in his footsteps—until the elect number shall be completed and shall share his glory. Then his Kingdom will take the course of earth. Satan shall be bound for a thousand years and all the wonderful blessings promised in the Law and the Prophets and Gospels and Epistles shall be fulfilled.

"A Savior and a Great One" We have seen how the Son of God attained his Priestly Office, for the sacrifice of himself; how he was anointed thereto, and also anointed to be the great King, and how he has been merely waiting for the due time for his Kingdom to begin. Now we inquire as to the force and significance of the word Savior, and how he saves his people from their sins!

In the Arabic, Savior signifies "Melfter." The Redeemer, glorified as the antitypical Melchisedec, "a priest upon his throne," is to be the Savior or Deliverer of the race, for whose sin and because of whose condemnation he died.

"The Just for the unjust, to bring us back to God." Some during this Age and some during the period of his Messianic reign. Gradually he, with his saintly Bride class, will uplift humanity from sin and death to righteousness and life eternal and will destroy all who refuse the blessing in the Second Death, from which there will be no hope of recovery.

But the Christ, the Savior of Glory, Bride and Bridegroom, will, unitedly, be the world's Savior. The glorified Redeemer saves his Church first—by a special salvation and High Calling. These are the "elect," called to suffer with him and, if faithful, to reign with him on the Heavenly plane. These are dealt with now on the basis of faith; they pass from death unto life by the exercise of faith and their entering into a Covenant with God, of sacrifice, through the merit of the Redeemer. Their salvation will be made actual when they shall share in his resurrection, the "First Resurrection," and become kings and priests unto God, to reign with Christ a thousand years.—Rev. 20:6.

The New South. Every town in the country has its sour-faced pessimists—unless it is this town. Every town has its bright-faced optimists. It is a bright-faced hustler that counts. Which are you? There is no room in the coming town for the pessimist. The other man is in demand. Just at this time in the dawn of the glorious New South, this town needs the united service of every hustler and with a strong pull—all together we will win.

RULE ON SHERMAN LAW.

Supreme Court Decision Helps Government Prosecutions.

Washington, Dec. 12.—Announcing the broad rule that a conspiracy under the Sherman anti-trust law may be a "continuing offense," instead of an offense limited to the formation of the conspiracy and possibly, overt acts thereunder, which would revive the conspiracy, the Supreme Court of the United States today went a long way toward dispelling doubts as to the law. The direct result of the decision, New York, and Thomas E. Hays, of New York, and Gustave E. Kissel, of Philadelphia, must answer further to the indictment, brought in 1909, in New York, charging them with conspiracy with the American Sugar Refining Company and others to drive the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Company out of business.

The indirect result will be that the government will find it easier to prosecute conspiracies under the Sherman anti-trust law. Instead of being required to show in an indictment a conspiracy or an overt act in furtherance thereof within three years of the time of indictment, it is said that the accused will be required to show that the conspiracy had been ended by abandonment or success more than three years before the indictment.

Christmas Morning. Before the wintry sun is up, Oh, what a racket greets my ears, The din is surely loud enough To wake the folks of other spheres. The trumpets toot, the duffles squeak, The woolly lambs in chorus bleat, The baby locomotives chug, And rat-tat-too the drumsticks beat. For this is Christmas morning.

A toy piano tinkles out, A tiny, teeny-weeny tune, So faint, so sweet it might be played Away up in the silver moon. The air with merry laughter rings, And shrieks of glee, and whoops of joy, And happy gurgles of delight From rosy, roosting girl and boy, For this is Christmas morning.

Wee Jimmy sports a soldier suit, And Johnny has a wagon red, And Susie not a camper, And Bruce and Tommie each a sled. And Bobby in fringe and feathers gay, Just like an Indian chief appears, And mother hugs them every one, And murmurs "Bless the little dears!" For this is Christmas morning.

WIDE OF THE MARK. A sermon is going the rounds in some sections of the country that the county commissioners are contemplating spending $60,000 or $65,000 on the court house.

The only foundation for such a report is the statement made that by the expenditure of $12,000 to $15,000 the county would have a building equal to any $65,000 structure.

The recent fire has made such repairs necessary and now, that this must be done let conveniences go in. Steam heat for one. The court room should be improved, at least the seats should be raised and better ventilation provided.

CHIEF JUSTICE WHITE, PIANO.

Plays Only, However, For His Own Entertainment.

The new head of the United States Supreme Court probably is the only man ever placed in that exalted position who is an accomplished pianist.

Chief Justice White's main diversion is the piano. It is a source of self-entertainment, through which he gets relief from the cares of ponderous judicial thought and research.

But he rarely plays for the entertainment of friends. Persons on his visiting list frequently have entered his residence and automatically listened to his manipulation of the keys with rapt enjoyment. When discovered he has shown embarrassment and sometimes annoyance.

On one occasion while strolling with his chum, Associate Justice Holmes, Justice White entered a music store, and seated himself at a piano. Running his fingers over the keys with dexterity, he astounded the Massachusetts jurist with the strains of an aria from an opera they had attended the evening before and the fine points of which they had been discussing on their walk.

In a jiffy a pleased crowd assembled. But so absorbed was Justice White that he did not notice his audience until from memory he had rendered the aria, which he had not played for years. When he saw the crowd he blushed and hurried through a rear door.

SAVED FROM AWFUL DEATH. How an appalling calamity in his family was prevented is told by A. D. McDonald, of Fayetteville, N. C. R. F. D. No. 8. "My sister had consumption," he writes "she was very thin and pale, had no appetite and seemed to grow weaker every day, and as all remedies failed till Dr. King's New Discovery was tried, and so completely cured her, that she has not been troubled with a cough since. It is the best medicine I ever saw or heard of." For coughs, colds, asthma, croup, bronchitis, trouble it has no equal. $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by W. H. Macnair.

Twenty-Seven Students Expelled From the Brick School. With a view of affording our students the opportunity of making the most use of their time in the classroom and in their departments of work here, it was necessary to curtail certain social privileges which had heretofore been allowed. A number of boys objected to a curtailment of these privileges and banded themselves together in secret alliance to rebel against the regulations of the school. When the faculty found out this condition of things the boys were called together and told that they must within a certain time pledge their allegiance to every established order and regulation of the school. Each one of them refused to do this and upon this refusal all those in open rebellion against the institution were expelled.

We are happy to say that all the students who remain on the grounds have shown their approval of all that we have done, and have proved their loyalty of the school by their department since those boys were sent away today.

IN A BAD WAY. Many a Tarboro Reader Will Feel Grateful For This Information.

When your back gives out; Becomes lame, weak or aching; When urinary troubles set in. Your kidneys are "in a bad way." Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you. Here is good evidence to prove it. Mrs. T. S. NORMAN, 911 Myrtle St., Greenville N. C., says: "I gladly give Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement, as they have proved of greater benefit to me than any other remedy I ever used. I suffered severely from a dull ache through the small of my back. There was also a soreness across my kidneys and I was hardly able to get around on account of sharp, darting pains through my loins. Upon arising in the morning, I felt tired and languid and had but little ambition or energy. Since using Doan's Kidney Pills the pains have entirely disappeared. I do not suffer from backaches and that tired languid feeling has been removed. My experience with Doan's Kidney Pills has been so satisfactory that I do not hesitate to give them my endorsement."

SIGNS OF HARD WINTER.

Muskraat Building Housess High, Dry, Large and Warm.

Muskraat trappers who were here last evening made a statement that seemed odd shifts to run down the backs of spectators who knew the good old winter time and that since this will be one of the most severe winters in recent years," said the trappers, who were more homesick in Delaware this year because of the demand for all kinds of fur-bearing animals, made more insistent by the use of automobile signs.

"These trappers in the way of a sign," said one. "The muskraat, like the beaver, is a nesting aquatic animal possessed of superior foresight, and when a winter of unusual length and severity is approaching he builds his house with increased skill. He builds it high and dry. Needs, cut-sills, girders of the leads and moush-and then a sewing of mud and clay are all used by the wise little builders until cold air and raindrops are effectually barred. Then he makes his house high so he can go in and keep above the rising tides. When a mild winter approaches the muskraat spreads very little mud on house construction and build small houses. This year however, they are building them high and large and can do accommodate as many as twenty muskraats."

The speaker declared that no matter how many muskraats a house could accommodate, the black muskraats did not associate with the brown and under no circumstances did they breed together.

Muskraat men are stopping high, and an army now follows the business of trapping, as the muskraat fur or pelt for years worth only 20 or 25 cents are now in great demand at 80. Some of Delaware's trappers have even received quotations and requests from England and Russia.—Dover correspondence Philadelphia Inquirer.
