

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 2.

TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, MARCH 4, 1929.

No. 28

Landrum Home Burned

J. H. Williams home in Landrum burned down this morning about 3:30. Origin unknown. Mr. and Mrs. Williams are in Columbus, Ga. visiting and no one was at home. Town watchman passed house at 3 o'clock and saw no fire, it is said. Messrs. Davenport and Earle were awakened about 3:30 and rushed to the scene. The fire made such headway that the volunteer firmen could not save it.

Hogback In Receiver's Hands

Spartanburg paper says that Paul C. Smith, president of the Carolina Mts, Inc. has been appointed receiver by the court for the Hogback property, at the request of bondholders of $100,000. President Smith hopes the property will be bought in and a new company formed. Sale will be held soon.

Fortnightly Presents The Cradle Song

A comedy in two acts with an interlude and verse by G. Martinez Sierra will be presented at the Parish House Wednesday evening, March 6. The characters are as follows:

Sister Joanna of the Cross	Mrs. Paul C. Smith
Teresa	Miss Martha Marshall
The Prioress	Miss Helen Stearns
The Vicarress	Mrs. W. R. Mehaffey
The Mistress of Novices	Mrs. S. A. Bingham
Sister Marcella	Mrs. Manfred Gottfried
Sister Maria Jesus	Mrs. Hallie Conrad
Sister Tornera	Mrs. Seward Mott
The Doctor	Mrs. R. E. Perry
Antonio	W. C. Thayer
The Poet	Mrs. Frank Hale Touret

Scenes The cloister of a convent of Dominican Nuns. The place is Spain. Time the present. Directed by Mrs. Carl M. Gottfried and Mr. F. W. Crandall. Staged by Mr. H. W. Crandall.