

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

Published every day except Sunday

Seth M. Vining, Editor

By Mail $3.50 per year TELEPHONES $1.00 By Carrier

OFFICE 174
RESIDENCE 254-J

WEATHER BY POSTAL TELEGRAPH

Cloudy and warmer

The Garden club will meet Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. Carroll P. Rogers. An interesting program has been arranged.

Roy Blackwell leaves the hospital tonight for his home to recuperate.

Amos Foster reports to Spartanburg Baseball club Wednesday.

Miss Catherine Johnson entertained with breakfast at her home yesterday morning following the hunt of the Riding and Hunt club. Those present were Mr and Mrs. John Washburn, Mr. George Wick, M.F.H., Mrs. Wick Dr. and Mrs. George Raynald, Mr. John Benison of Portland, Me., Miss Juliet Goodrich of Chicago, Mrs. George P. Greenhalgh of Toledo, O., Mr. and Mrs. Carter P. Brown. The regular hunting days are Monday and Thursday at 10 a. m. Saturday at 7 a. m.

Rev. J. M. Barber preached at the Mill Spring Methodist church Sunday night.

Dr. George R. Gillespie of Forest City, who is Kiwanis Lieut. Governor of this district, preached at the Saluda and Tryon Presbyterian church Sunday Mrs. Gillespie accompanied him.

Rev. A. L. Lucas of Mill Spring is in Kingsport, Tenn. conducting a revival meeting.

Check Your Tires

And

Call C. W. NESSMITH

I can supply you with the well known Pennsylvania line, also southern Tires & Tubes, and a guarantee that counts. Phone 255 terms if desired one third down Balance by the week.

Spring Felt Hats

$3:50 $5 $6

The MAN'S Store

R. H. Brady

FIRE AUTOMOBILE CASUALTY
INSURANCE

Office in Telephone Building

Phone 1

Get Your Copy of

"The Lure of the Great Smokies", by Robt. Mason

"Carolina Mountains", by Margaret Morley

"Southern Highlanders", by Horace Kephart

Bird and Flowers, Ferns and Tree Books

EASTER CARDS

ELIZABETH ARDEN PRODUCTS

BLUE RIDGE WEAVERS

Dry Cleaning & Pressing

Called for and Delivered

Phone 251 R 2

J. D. WAYMAN

FOR RENT: Nice furnished home at a bargain. See W. S. Green.