

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 2. TRYON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 1929. No. 42

Lex Kluttz, around-the-world traveler is in Tryon for several days speaking at local hotels and meetings of various kinds. He is helping launch the final program for the orphans under care of Near East Relief. If your contribution is not called for by one of the local crusade captains by Friday please send or mail it to Mayor E. E. Missildine.

Country Club Work Progressing

Work on the Tryon Country Club building is moving along nicely and President Brown says that he expects it to be finished in about three weeks, just in time for the horse show crowd.

Drama Fortnightly Tonight

"The Royal Family" directed by Harold Crandall will be read tonight by the following cast:

Jo	Anson Merrick
Della	Kathleen Dobbyn
Herbert Dean	Roger McKinnon
Kitty Dean	Olive Pratt
Gwen Cavendish	Martha Marshall
Perry Stewart	Fred E. Carswell
Fannie Cavendish	Mrs. M. O. Kelly
Oscar Wolfe	William Dobbyn
Julie Cavendish	Marion Brown
Athony Cavendish	John Skinner
Gilbert Marshall	A. G. Crowley

Delightful Kiwanis Program

The Kiwanis Ladies Night program at the Parish House last night was very entertaining with short speeches and musical numbers. Mr. J. S. Massenburg gave an interesting talk on the ideals of Kiwanis. Mr. Thos. L. Elders gave a brief history of Governor Tryon; Dr. John Brittan Clark in his usual happy manner kept the audience in an uproar while he sandwiched in some food for thought. Mrs. Fred Sudduth of Hendersonville gave delightful whistling selections and Miss Mildred Louise Brockwell of Columbus a number of vocal solos. Both were encored a number of times. Miss Muriel Harrington and Miss Lois Crawley were pianists. Mr. James W. Cockrum, former Dist. Governor of Indiana, gave a pleasant greeting from the Hoosier state. A delicious supper was served by the ladies of the Methodist church.