

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 2. TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, MARCH 26, 1929. No. 47

This is Holy Week

Wed. " 27th.--4 P. M. Divine worship, Mr. Newton preaching at Congregational Church.

Saluda Athlete Draws Interest

Stephenson, a pitcher from Saluda, N. C. is to hurl the opening game against High Point College at Spartanburg Friday, and it is reported that the whole town's coming down to Spartanburg to see the native son do his stuff. Stephenson has impressed Manager Kelly very much, hence his call at the opening game.

Still Another Still Gone

Officers Panther and Edwards raided Coopers Gap again last night and destroyed an 85 gallon copper still, a large amount of beer and 27 gallons of pure, good, whiskey. The operators of the still ran faster than the officers.

Horse Show April 8th.

Reservations for Tryon's fourth Annual Horse Show, under the auspices of the Tryon Riding and Hunt Club, will be opened Wednesday, March 27th at the Mountain Industries, or by addressing G. F. Stone, Box 608 Tryon. All reservations must be accompanied by check.

Boxes--6 seats to box, $12 One seat in a box $2.00. Parking space for car and one person $5.00; additional occupants $1 each. General admission $1. Barbecue luncheon $1.25 per plate.

Burned Child Dies

The little two year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar McGuinn, who fell in a tub of scalding water yesterday, died last night from the burns.

Firemen to Meet

Chief Wilson is issuing a call for all volunteer firemen to meet Wednesday night at 7:30 at the City Hall for practice, etc.

The Bulletin Prints Stationery