

Where We Go Tonight At the Strand

"Restless Youth" an entertaining picture which pleased the audience last night will be shown again tonight at 8 o'clock.

Chamber of Commerce

Meets tonight at 8 o'clock at Missildine's Hall. Everybody urged to be present.

Interesting Play

Special to The Citizen

This evening, at eight o'clock in the Stearns high school auditorium "A Manless Wedding" will be given under the auspices of the Golden Rule Sunday School class of the Columbus Baptist church. A small admission will be charged. Money realized will be used in buying shrubbery for the church. An evening filled with entertainment is in store for all who come out, as the following personnel of the wedding indicates: Miss Merle Feagan; Miss Evelyn Walker; Mrs. Murray Tate; Mrs. Herman Walker; Miss Gertrude West; Miss Odessa Mills; Mrs. J. Lee Lavandar; Miss Minnie Arledge; Mrs. Charles B. Trammell; Mrs. Oris C. Martin; Miss Thelma Mills; Miss Eva Pitman; Miss Mary Tate; Miss Grace Feagan; Miss Helen Blanton; Miss Opal Cloud; Misses Coy Smith, Dorothy Landis, Gladys Owens, Sudie Williams; Misses Carry Williams, Louise Williams, Ruth Edwards, Bertha Jones; Mary Lillian Blanton, Lucille Walker; Misses Orletta Landis, Eva Davis.

Horse Shoe Pitchers Organize

A Horse Shoe Pitchers club is being formed in Tryon. Twenty members have already joined. Membership dues are only 25c. Games and contests will be held on the Ballenger lot above City Hall. Several benches will be built near the court. Visitors to Tryon are invited to play free of cost. Horse Shoes can be had at the Bulletin office. If you care to join this club pay 25c to C. W. Morgan.

The Bulletin Prints Stationery
