

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 3. TRYON, N. C., SATURDAY, MARCH 1, 1930. No. 26

At The Churches

Miss Grace DuPre, violinist of Spartanburg will play Sunday morning at Erskine Congregational church, "The Last Hope" by Gottschalk.

METHODIST: 11 a. m. Rev. O. L. Robinson will preach on "How to Pray".

BAPTIST: Service and sermon, 11 a. m. Dr. Bomar will preach. Sunday School 10 a. m. C. L. Brewer, superintendent. B. Y. P. U. 7 p. m. At the close of the program 7:35 p. m. Mr. J. Lee Lavender will speak on "Youth and Leadership". Everybody welcome.

PRESBYTERIAN: Installation of Rev. D. M. McGeachy as pastor at Columbus at 3:30 Rev. J. E. Berryhill of Lowell preaching the sermon. Installation at Tryon 7:30, Rev. I. S. McElroy of Rutherfordton preaching.

Tryon Loses Two Games

Tryon boys and girls dropped their basket ball games last night to Hendersonville and Fassifern. The boys lost 60-11 and the girls 27-17.

Organ Recital Sunday

An organ recital will be given Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the church of Holy Cross by Mr. Edgar C. Thompson. Miss Greta Masson will sing two arias and recitative from Handel's Messiah and Bach-Grunod's Ave Maria. These recitals will be given every Sunday afternoon during Lent providing sufficient interest is maintained.

Carnival Tuesday

A carnival and bazaar will be held at the Parish House Tuesday, March 4. The afternoon program for children, dancing, games and music planned. Gay paper caps and attractive favors for each young guest. A candy booth, a fish pond and other attractions. In the evening a masquerade dance. Refreshments for sale. 25c for afternoon and 50c for evening, the proceeds to be equally divided between the Women's Board of the hospital and the Women's Service League.

The Bulletin Prints Letterheads