

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 3. TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, MARCH 3, 1930. No. 27

Prayer Day on Radio

On Friday, March 7th between 8:15 and 8:30 A. M. a devotional services will be broadcast to open the World Day of Prayer for Missions. Eighteen stations of the National Broadcasting company will present this service. Locally it can be heard through Charlotte, Raleigh or Louisville Kentucky.

No Picture Tonight

The Management of the Strand Theatre announces to his patrons that there will be no feature for Monday and Tuesday, on account of the Carnival and Bazaar, and the Strand is co-operating in every way. The Strand presents "She Goes To War," Wednesday and Thursday.

No Weather Report

The usual monthly weather report recorded by Observer John Orr will not be printed this time on account of the severe illness of Mr. Orr who has been in bed for three week and not able to tabulate the records.

Foster Tax Collector Possibility

Rumors in Tryon among friends of J. Robert Foster, state that he may run for Tax Collector in the coming primary. Mr. Foster is son of Post master J. R. Foster of Mill Spring and was a candidate for sheriff in 1924

E.B. Cloud Elected Chairman Democratic Co. Committee

The Democratic County executive committee met this afternoon and elected E.B. Cloud Chairman; J. S. Massenburg, Vice-Chairman; F. M. Burgess, secretary. Speeches were made by Messrs. Cloud and Massenburg urging the party to stick together for a November victory. Representatives were present from Green Creek, Columbus, Saluda, and White Oak.