

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, 1928, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C., under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 3. TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, MARCH 4, 1930. No. 28

Carnival tonight

Parish House. A masquerade dance. Refreshments. Booths selling wares. A great time. Lots of fun. Bring your girl. Admission 50c.

Fractures Skull in Fall

Mrs. Early Middleton of Saluda fell from a wagon this morning as it ran against the curb. Her head hit the pavement and fractured her skull. Condition serious. Her son was driving the wagon. She is a sister of Mr. James A. Pace.

Rare Treat At Library Wednesday

Mrs. Parkhurst will give piano numbers at Lanier club meeting Wednesday at 3:30. Introductions and descriptions by Mrs. Peattie. Visitors especially invited.

Man Drops Dead

Mr. Wofford Hutchinson, age 63, Landrum farmer dropped dead yesterday afternoon about 4:30 while walking railroad track going home. Deceased was tenant on Mr. J. L. Brown's place. Survived by wife and several children.

White at Lynn Church

Rev. Chas. Trammel announces that Prof. P.S. White will conduct prayer service Thursday night at the Lynn Baptist church.

---

The Bulletin Prints Letterheads