Man's Store Making Its Own Homespun at the Store

Through courtesy of Appalachian Hand Weavers Tryon Homespun cloth is being made daily at the Man's Store building. Ralph Lawrence, local expert weaver makes the cloth on an old fashion loom. The public is invited to see how this excellent material is made. Mr. F. P. Bacon is the president of the local weaving concern, and Mr. Erwin Swann is superintendent. The editor of the Bulletin visited the plant Thursday, and Mr. Bacon says any visitors to Tryon are welcome to see the homespun made at the plant.

Kiwanis Ladies Night

Tuesday, 7 o'clock at Lake Lanier Tea House. Chmn. Geo. A. Cathey states that gay, green hats and the spirit of St. Patrick's would dominate the event.

Bicycle Thief Caught

Night Marshal Mercalf arrested a negro boy about 4 o'clock Sunday morning when he rode in from Hendersonville where authorities reported a bicycle stolen.

Young Man Dies

Jack Thornton, 21, son of Mrs. C. D. Thornton of Detroit, died yesterday morning about 7 o'clock. He came to Tryon several months ago in poor health. The body prepared by F. K. McFarland, will be interred in Indiana.

Scouts to Raise $1,000

County executive committee meets Tues. at 10 a. m. at Chmn. F.P. Bacon's office to canvass the county for money to carry on this excellent work throughout Piedmont Council. Polk county's quota is the smallest, yet she reaps the most benefit. Be as liberal as you can, and see the work the Boys are doing.
