Home Spirituals Coming

Charleston Evening Post

The Southern Home Spirituals are leaving for Tryon, N. C. on Tuesday a. m., where they will be heard in concert on the evening of the 25th in the Tryon theater. The leader of this group, Mrs. M. R. Gaillard, visited Tryon last summer and during her stay put on a private entertainment, the above call being the out come of her solo work. This group of characteristic singers has never failed to win praise and admiration for their perfect work. They can boast of 100 per cent of membership having been reared on plantations, therefore they know their types. The real style of "before de wab" singing of the delightful old spirituals is fast disappearing if not actually out of existence. The people of Tryon are looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to hearing this group of singers. The concert will be given for the benefit of the new hospital at Tryon.
