

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 3. TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, AUGUST 1, 1930. No. 158

Small Man Visits Tryon

Jack Barnett, of Roxboro, N. C., 43 inches high, weighing 68 pounds was the smallest man ever to visit Tryon on business. He entered the Tryon Drug Store Thursday afternoon as a salesman for Meditation cigars. Soon the store was filled with astonished spectators who opened their eyes wide and grinned at everything the little man did. Mr. Barnett stated that he had been in many shows and traveled all over the world, and seen practically everything. So he came back to his native town of Roxboro to live. He has a brother 44 inches high but who weighs only 45 pounds. Jack says this brother is the lightweight of the family while he is the heavy weight. The midget claims that he is a good advertisement for his product for he smokes a cigar every hour of the day, and works overtime.

Tryon Wins Golf Tournament

Charles Nessmith of Tryon came out victor Thursday afternoon in the finals of the miniature golf tournament held between players from Saluda and Tryon on Leonards Lucky Links. There were twelve entries in all, the last three to play off were; Charles Nessmith, John Darby of Saluda, and Walt Glover. Glover having drawn a bye, Nessmith eliminated Darby in the next round. Walt Glover, the runner up lost to Nessmith in the finals.

Mr. W.C. White Dead

News was received in Tryon this afternoon of the sudden death of Mr. William C. White this morning at his home in Deerwood, Minn. Burial will be at Racine, Wis. Mrs. White and sister, Miss Durand survive. The deceased was very prominent in church work, Drama Fortnightly, and other civic activities.

Tryon 10; Davis Sta. 10

Tryon and Davis Station played an eleven inning baseball game Thursday afternoon at Harmon Field which ended in a 10-10 tie and a fist fight between Tryon pitcher Ruppy Capps and the Davis base umpire. A large crowd enjoyed both the game and fight.