

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 3. TRYON, N. C., SATURDAY, AUGUST 2, 1930. No. 159

Rotarians Hear Dr. Solomon

Dr. Solomon of Savannah, Ga. was the principal speaker at the weekly Rotary luncheon, held at the Lake Lanier Tea House yesterday. Dr. Solomons talk was very interesting, touching on many subjects that pertain to boys and of the dealing with them. He went deeply into the relation of father and son companionship.

Polk County Farmers and Farm Women Return From State Tour

Fourteen Polk county farmers and farm women, including Co. Agt. J. W. Artz, and Home Demonstrator, Miss Cox, returned Thursday night from a four days tour including cities of Gilford College, Chapel Hill, Greensboro, Raleigh, Wrightsville Beach, Carolina Beach, and Ft. Fisher. At Raleigh the party visited state college, museum, capitol, insane asylum, and other public buildings. 800 miles was travelled at a cost of about $8 per person, making the fare only 1 cent a mile for each person, including transportation, rooms and board. Those making the trip were Messrs. Roland Giles, Campobello, Rt. 4; Glenn Clark, Tryon, Rt. 1; Dr. E. W. Dedmond, Columbus; L. L. Tallent, Columbus. The women were Mrs. W. T. Head, Melvin Hill; Mrs. A. A. Edwards, Columbus; Mrs. Arthur Thompson, Pea Ridge; Mrs. Prince Clark, Columbus; Mrs. E. B. Edwards, Mill Spring; Mrs. Granville Thompson, Mill Spring; Mrs. E. W. Dedmond, Columbus.

4-H Clubs To Take Course

County Agent John Artz and Home Demonstrator Miss Florence Cox will leave Monday for Raleigh in company with the Polk County delegates, of the Boys and Girls 4-H clubs, who will attend the annual club short course at state college, Aug. 4 to 9. The following delegates have made reservations: Fred Feagan, Green Creek; Curtis Bastic, Mary Cantrell, Beulah Powell, and Dora Stott of Hickory Grove; Lois Hines, New Hope; Dorothy and Ruby Lynch, Mill Spring; Ruby Lee Corn, Red Mt.; Julia and Louise Jones, Saluda; Celia Whitesides, Sunnyview; Othelo Feagan, Melvin Hill; Bertha Ward, Mt. Page; Ralph Stepp, Sunnyview.