

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 3. TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, AUGUST 4, 1930. No. 160

Mr. Dwight Smith reads over the Spartanburg radio station, WSPA, at 1 p. m. Wednesday, the following: "Jean Val Jean", a scene from Victor Hugo's great novel Les Miserables, also a humorous sketch, "A Ruling Passion".

Kiwanis Tuesday at Mimosa

J.S.Massenburg in charge.

Tournament at Saluda Tonight

Arrowhead Miniature Golf course scene of tournament at 9 o'clock. Suitable prizes. Tryon golfers invited.

Flower Show Planned

County Flower Show for Sept. 13, at Columbus courthouse is being planned by Miss Florence Cox. Everbody invited to participate. Donations are now solicited for prizes in addition to the ribbons. If you have any cash, bulbs, seeds, cuttings, etc. suitable for prizes, please notify Miss Cox.

Auto Wrecked Near Landrum

A Hudson Sedan owned by Nelson Foster of Asheville was wrecked when it left the road at the sharp turn just this side of Moore's Lumber Co. in Landrum Saturday night about 12 o'clock. A friend was driving. The car turned on it's side and at the same time caught on fire, the men were unhurt and put the flames out by throwing sand on the motor. The Carolina Auto Service at Tryon was called and the car towed here for repairs.

Singing at Saluda High School

The Happy Two from Vaughn's school will sing at 8 p.m. Tuesday night, Aug. 5. No admission. Other singers on program.

If you want to visit Blowing Rock this week at special rates call 68.
