

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 3. TRYON, N. C., SATURDAY, AUGUST 9, 1930. No. 165

Carolina Moon Popular in England

Edgar C. Thompson writing from Hastings, England, states that Carolina Moon is very popular over there; and that every time he hears it he thinks of the good times had with the Tryon Kiwanians here. Carolina Moon is the official song of the Carolina Kiwanis District, and Mr. Thompson played the piano at Mimosa while the local club was learning the song.

Andrews Melon

No; not the Secretary of the Treasury. Just a big watermelon on display at Andrews Inc. window. Weighed 65 pounds. Lot of folks tried to guess its weight. Arnold Williams missed it one pound. He's used to selling things by the pound.

Dances Drawing Crowds

The public dances at the Strand theater seem to be growing popular every Friday night after the movies. Music last night was furnished by Gurley the Columbus fiddler; Paul McCright of Greenville on the Ukelelee, and Gwinnn Andrews on the Harmonica. McCright and Andrews play tonight over Radio station WSPA at Spartanburg at 6:15 to 6:30.

At the Churches

EPISCOPAL: 9:30 a.m. Service read by Mr. R. D. Lyons.

CONGREGATIONAL: Rev. James G. Dale, D.D. of A. R. P. church, now attending assembly at Flat Rock, preaches at 11 a.m.

BAPTIST: "The Boy and God" will be Dr. Bomar's subject at 11 a.m. B. Y. P. U. at 7:30 p.m. Marshall Ballew, leader.

PRESBYTERIAN: 11 a.m. at Tryon. Rev. McGeachy's subject: "Better Possessions."

Robbers Caught

Two burglars, Charlie Haney and Lyda Dockery of West Asheville, were intercepted early Thursday morning in Asheville by city detectives with a load of merchandise. Officers in this territory were notified, and the burglars turned out to be the ones that robbed the store of W. S. McCall, prominent merchant of Lynn. Deputy Sheriff R. B. Staton and Mr. McCall went to Asheville for the men; and Mr. McCall recovered most of his goods stolen which was valued around $75. The burglars were brought to Columbus jail where they are being held until the September term of the Superior court.