

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 3. TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, AUGUST 15, 1930. No. 170

Bartleson Buys Paint Co.

Announcement in the Spartanburg Herald states that C. W. Bartleson of Alliance, Ohio had bought the Stewart Bros. Paint Co. of Spartanburg, and that he would move his family to Spartanburg right away to make their home. Mr. Bartleson is vice-president of the Stewart Paint Co. and the business in Spartanburg will be known as the Stewart-Bartleson Co. "Charlie" as Mr. Bartleson is known to many Tryon friends, formerly lived here, and he says that he is glad to get back to Spartanburg where he will be close to home.

Tryon Defeats Flat Rock

The Tryon Baseball team went to Flat Rock Thursday afternoon and defeated the Henderson county team 9-8. Taylor and Stevenson made up the battery for Tryon.

Col. Revival Ends Sunday

The revival services being conducted at the Columbus Baptist church by the Rev. A. W. Ayers of Forest City, will close Sunday night with the evening service. Miss Lucy Peet will talk Sunday morning at the Mill Spring Baptist church in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Chas. B. Trammel who will be attending the revival services at the Columbus church.

Colored Game Disbanded

Alf Payne, Tryon colored third baseman, broke up the game with Hendersonville yesterday by walking off the field in 8th inning. He claimed an unfair decision. The local team played good. Jess Hannon's hitting and Zigler's fielding featured the game.

The Bulletin Prints Letterheads
