

It doesn't cost anything to talk for your community even in hard times. So let us talk now and reap a rich harvest later.

---

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

---

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

---

Vol. 3. TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, AUGUST 25, 1930. No. 178

---

Miniature Golt Exhibition

An exhibition match of Miniature golf players between the champions of Forest City and Tryon will be played Tuesday night at 8 o'clock at the Leonard's Lucky Links in Pacolet Valley. The Forest City players defeated the Tryon foursome last week in Forest City and the local team is eager for a home victory. Following the exhibition all players of both teams will be entertained at the home of Mr. Hume Fraser.

One Week Till School

One week from today and the school bells of Tryon, Lynn and Saluda will be ringing again. The first Tryon teachers meeting will be held Saturday night. This will be busy week, school clothes to buy, books, lunch boxes and other paraphernalia necessary to school life. The only change in the Tryon faculty will be that of Mr. Caldwell succeeding Miss Minnie Lee Fagan.

Kiwanis Meets Tuesday

At the Mimosa Inn, 1 p. m.

Hampton Family Reunion

The Hampton family of Polk county held their reunion Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Feagan in Columbus. About 75 relatives from North and South Carolina, West Virginia and Texas attended the meeting. This pioneer family of Polk has been prominent in the development of this section and their influence is spread over the country.

Let's Boost Polk County

---

The Bulletin Prints Letterheads

---