

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 3. TRYON, N. C., TUESDAY, AUGUST 26, 1930. No. 179

Still Raided

Officers Edwards, Staton and Chief Wilson located a still Sunday just below the horseshoe curve near the Tryon Country Club Golf Course. Officer Staton destroyed the still Monday. A 60 gallon capacity steamer and about 150 gallons of bear were destroyed.

W. M. Moore Dead

Dr. and Mrs. B. B. Bishop were called to Inman this morning by the death of Mrs. Bishop's father, Mr. W. M. Moore, prominent lumberman of Spartanburg county who dropped dead this morning.

Golf Exhibit Called Off

The Miniature Golf exhibition scheduled for tonight at Leonard's Lucky Links has been postponed until next Tuesday night on account of the death of Dr. Bishop's father-in-law, Mr. W. M. Moore. Dr. Bishop is a member of the Tryon Foursome.

Atlanta Preacher in Saluda

Dr. Frazer of Atlanta is conducting a revival at the Baptist Church at Saluda all this week.

Lynn Baby Dead

The little girl baby of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Metcalf which was born last night died this morning in Lynn.

Big Labor Day Plans

Field Day Events. Baseball between Kiwanis and Rotary. Other features.

The Bulletin Prints Letterheads