

Keep Talking Better Times but Work Too

---

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress. March 3, 1879.

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 3. TRYON, N. C., FRIDAY, AUGUST 29, 1930. No. 182

---

No News Today

Ask yourself what news, real news, you would have put on front page today and sympathize with the Bulletin.

Monday Big Day in Polk

It's Labor Day. County Commissioners Day. A Tax meeting day. Pay your bills day. School opening Day. Field Day at Harmon Field. The Rotarians and Kiwanians are scheduled to play baseball. Program 11 to 4 p.m.

Winter Residents Coming

New and old winter residents are arriving in Tryon and others are seeking locations.

Bob Steele at Strand

Bob Steele in an All-Talking western picture, "Near the Rainbow's End", will be shown tonight and Saturday. Matinee Saturday. Square dance tonight after the show.

Rotary Club met today at Lake Lanier Tea House with Pres. Frank Moore in charge.

---

The Bulletin Prints Letterheads