

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 3. TRYON, N.C., WEDNESDAY, JAN. 7 1931. Est. 1-31-28

Tuesday Afternoon

At Pine Crest Inn, Riding & Hunt Club re-elected Pres. S. A. Bingham, Vice Pres. Fred McDonald, Secretary-Treasurer C.J.Lynch. Date for Horse Show set for April 8, Gymkahana April 2, Dance at Country club April 1. Tilting tournament also planned.

Arrested Tuesday Night

Luther Porter, young white man, alleged to have entered home of Mr. Mark Smith yesterday and stole some clothing and other things. He was put in Columbus jail by Constable Lit Durham.

Wednesday, Today

Postmaster S. B. Edwards family is stricken. His daughter, Miss Gwendolyn, is in Dr. Jervoy's hospital at Greenville where she went in an effort to save her eyesight which is almost gone. This afternoon, his son, Bryson, a clerk in the post office, was taken to St. Lukes hospital for appendix operation.

Thursday

At 10 a. m. Mayor Missildine has issued a call meeting upon request at his hall for all those interested in having a bank in Tryon, Notice was published yesterday.

At 3:30 at Lanier Library Miss Hazel Abbott of Converse college will address the public on "The Modern Drama". All invited.

Friday

Rotary club meets 1 p. m. at Oak Hall. This arrangement will continue until further notice.

Saturday

County teachers meet at Columbus at 9 a.m. Dr. J.C. Calfee, of Asheville Normal, principal speaker.