

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress. March 3, 1879.

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 3.

TRYON, N.C., RIDAY, JAN. 9 1931.

Est. 1-31-28

Mr. Jim Egerton Dead

Mr. Jim Egerton of Cooper Gap died at 1 p.m. today at Rutherford hospital following severe exposure in the big snow storm.

Mrs. Searcy Dead

Mrs. Ralph Searcy was buried today at Cooper Gap church following an illness of about a month. Husband and three children survive.

Contest at Strand

Mgr. C. W. Nessmith announces that the Strand theatre has entered an attendance contest for Monday, January 12th. He wants as many as possible to attend that day in order for him to win a prize. He offers two tickets for 35c.

Save Your Tickets

The Bulletin published coupons Thursday and Friday which if clipped out will admit Tryon people to the Montgomery Theatre at half price any time before Feb. 1.

County Teachers Meet

Saturday at Columbus. Dr. Calfee principal speaker.