

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 3. TRYON, N.C., SATURDAY, JAN. 10 1931. Est. 1-31-28

Paderewski at Spartanburg

Spartanburg is to be the Mecca for the musicians and music lovers of the Carolinas on the evening of January 30th, when Paderewski, the world's greatest living pianist, is to give a concert in the Converse College Auditorium.

Tryon, Columbus Split

By Mattie Green

Tryon Basketball teams came back yesterday from Gramlin, after playing Columbus down there with a fifty-fifty proposition. Tryon girls beat Columbus girls 20 - 5. Columbus boys beat Tryon boys 13 - 2. Mr. Eargle of Columbus was referee for the boys. Mr. Caldwell of Tryon was referee for the girls.

At The Churches

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH : "Present Values in The Lord's Supper" is the subject of the sermon, 11 A. M. B.Y.P.U. and Sunday School at the usual hours.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH : Holy Communion 8 A.M. Morning prayer and sermon 11 A.M.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH : Sermon 11 A.M. Dr. Clark preaching. Subject, "There is a way."