Officers elected for this year are Geo. A. Cathey, president; J. Foster Searles, vice-president; Douglas Blois, treasurer; directors Ray Jackson, J. S. Massenburg, and Fred E. Swann. A. A. Merrick was elected secretary.

During the year the Chamber of Commerce answered 319 written inquiries within 24 hours after receiving them. No record kept of the many oral inquiries. The postoffice Dept. was persuaded to replace the Sunday evening mail service which it had discontinued here. The railroad was induced to place a watchman at the crossing when trains are uncoupled there. Material and cuts for out of town magazines were furnished from time to time and at all times the organization has been seeking the welfare of the community.
