

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 3.

TRYON, N. C., MONDAY, JAN. 26 1931.

Est. 1-31-28

John Lynch Killed

Son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Lynch, Sr. formerly of Columbus, was shot at his home last night in a gun battle with some drunken men with whom he had quarrelled, it is said. Home near Chimney Rock.

Jack Foster Home Burned

Columbus home of Jack Foster was destroyed by fire last mid-night. Household goods and clothes lost too.

Mountains On Fire

Smoke and ashes from burning forest fires filled the atmosphere today. Buck and Warrior Mts. can be seen burning from Tryon.

Live Lion Coming Here

Tryon folks will get a treat Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, when Leo, the $1,000,000 lion of Metro Goldwyn Mayer Picture Co. will be in a cage at the Strand Theater.

Dr. Clark to Broadcast

Announcement from Spartanburg states that Dr. John Brittan Clark will broadcast over that station Wednesday from 4:30 to 5:00 p.m.