Waller, Kiwanis Speaker

Prof. C. B. Waller of Wofford college delighted the Kiwanis club today with talk on the methods Marion, S. C. is using to bring tourists to that city. He believes the same thing can be worked successfully for Tryon. Jimmy Massenburg conducted his usual current event quiz. The club passed a resolution opposing the sales tax. The Tryon club led western district last month with a 90 percent attendance.

Checks Making Progress

The Babson check system is now working in Tryon. The first one was started by C. J. Lynch who paid somebody he owed with this check which required ten endorsements before being cashed. $110 worth of debts were thus paid within an hour. About twenty of these checks have been issued and are clearing up many debts. The merchants are indebted to the Polk County News for donating the checks

Meetings at Columbus

Thursday night the business men of the county will be requested to meet at the Court House at 7:30 to discuss their relations with the farmer.

Friday morning from 10 till noon a county-wide meeting of farm folks will be held at the Court House, at which time two state experts will discuss the present farm problems for 1931.

Two pictures tonight at Strand theatre for the price of one. Also comedy.
