

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 4.

TRYON, N.C., TUESDAY, FEB. 10 1931.

Est. 1-31-28

Former Tryon Wowan Dead

Mrs. F.H. Sheppard, formerly resident of Tryon, died at Skyland, N.C., Monday morning. That afternoon her daughters, Misses Susan and Cecily Sheppard and Mrs. Charles Gonzalez of Pensacola, Florida, passed through Tryon at 5 P.M. taking their mother to be buried beside her husband in Pensacola.

Legion Meets Tonight

The American Legion meets tonight at 8 o'clock at the City Hall.

Fortnightly Two Nights

The Drama Fortnightly will have two performances this week, Wednesday and Thursday. Seats will be reserved the first night for holders of white tickets and the second night for holders of yellow tickets.

Farm Speakers at Kiwanis

Miss Florence Cox was the principal speaker at the Kiwanis meeting today. She told of her work in the County as Home Demonstrator, organizing and directing women's and girls club work for more attractive, healthful and efficient home life. Mr. John Henry Gibbs, farmer guest, of Mill Springs urged the adoption of Governor Gardner's 'Live at Home' program, and for the farmer to use certified seed, specialize in a certain product and advertise it on the basis of its quality.

To Build Home Here

Announcement has been made that Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Esten of Chicago, recent guests at Mimosa Inn have bought some of the Grant Miller property and will build a home there at once.

Hines New Ford Agency

The Hines Motor Co. of Columbus has been appointed the Ford Agency for Polk County to succeed the Dogget Motor Co.