

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 4. TRYON, N.C., WEDNESDAY, FEB. 11, 1931. Est. 1-31-28

Post Author Refers to Mr. Peattie

The Saturday Evening Post of last week carried an interesting article about the stage. On page 89 the author gives an account of a play he and Mr. Robert B. Peattie wrote. He also states that Eugene Field dedicated one of his unpublished poems to Mr. Peattie and it was entitled, "Mr. Peattie's Rubbers."

Drama Fortnightly Presents Two Performances Now

"Nothing But the Truth" will be presented tonight and Thursday night by the Drama Fortnightly under direction of Mrs. Carroll P. Rogers. Staging by Mr. Frank Moore. Seats will be reserved tonight for holders of white tickets. Seats Thursday night will be reserved for holders of yellow tickets.

Rotary Meets Friday

The Rotary club meets Friday at Oak Hall to discuss important state legislation.

---

The Bulletin $1.50 a Year

---