

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 4. TRYON, N.C., THURSDAY, FEB. 12 1931. Est. 1-31-28

P.T.A. Meets Monday

Miss Harriett Parsons of New Hartford, Conn. will be the chief speaker at the Tryon P.T.A. Monday afternoon. Her subject will be "Interior Decorating for Schools & Homes." Those serving tea, Mrs. Seth M. Vining, Mrs. C.N. Sayre, Mrs. J. T. Green and Mrs. J.W. Taylor.

Tryon, Green Creek Split

Tryon and Green Creek basketball teams split Tuesday night at Landrum. Tryon girls won their game 41 to 5, but the local boys lost theirs to Green Creek by a large margin.

Drama Fortnightly Tonight

The second performance of the Drama Fortnightly will be given tonight, presenting "Nothing But The Truth."

Bread Five Cents

The Bread advertised in today's A&P Ad should be 5 cents for a pound loaf instead of seven cents. The change in price arrived after the advertisement had been printed. The price is for Friday and Saturday.

$500 Raised; Need $900

Chairman W.A. Schilleter announces that $506 has been raised here for Red Cross work in the drought stricken area. $900 is our quota. Contributions may be left at Missildine's Pharmacy. The need is urgent.

The Bulletin $1.50 a Year