

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 4.

TRYON, N.C., FRIDAY FEB. 27 1931.

Est. 1-31-28

To Open Country Club Teas

Announcement will be made tomorrow of the opening of the Country Club Tea Room under the management of Mrs. Hume Fraser and Miss Ferdinande Poppe on Wednesday, March 4.

Major Sharp Rotary Speaker

Major B.S. Sharp spoke on World Disarmament today at the Rotary luncheon.

Senate Overrides Bonus Veto

News reached Tryon late this afternoon that the U. S. Senate had passed the Soldiers bonus bill over Hoover's veto.

Bob Custer at Strand

Bob Custer in "Covered Wagon Trails" will be shown at the Strand theater tonight and Saturday. Also a serial the "King of the Kongo"

Woman Kidnapped From Tryon

Mrs. Lois Gilliland, 18-year-old mother, who had been working in Tryon last week, left here Saturday for her home at High Point. On the train at Inman she says that she drunk some bottled drink in company with two men. She lost consciousness and did not wake up until she found her self in a cabin near Asheville. She says she doesn't remember anything after leaving Inman

From out of town paper

Basketball Tonight at Landrum