

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Voi. 4. TRYON, N.C., SATURDAY FEB. 28 1931. Est. 1-31-28

To Abolish Tax Collector

Senator McLean's bill to abolish the office of Tax Collector for Polk county, passed the Senate yesterday.

At The Churches

EPISCOPAL CHURCH: Holy Communion 8 A. M.
Holy Communion and sermon 11 A. M.

FIRST BAPTIST, "The Cost of God's Salvation" is the subject of Dr. Bomar's sermon at 11 A.M. Sunday school 10 A.M. Prof. M.B. Caldwell will teach the men's class. B.Y.P.U. 7:30 P.M. Dallas Wofford president.

Methodist: The subject Sunday morning is the first of a series of sermons on THE HUMANITY OF JESUS. The subject for next Sunday morning will be: THE HUMANITY OF JESUS: NECESSITY FOR IT.

CONGREGATIONAL 11 a.m. Dr. Clark preaching.

PRESBYTERIAN: at Tryon 7:30 p.m. Subject "Loyalty in Service" at Columbus at 11:15 and Saluda at 10 a.m.

Episcopal Women to Meet

All groups of the Woman's Auxilliary of the Episcopal church will meet at the Parish House Monday at three o'clock. The The President of the Western North Carolina branch will speak.

New Western Union Manager

Miss Gladys McClanrock, for a number of years manager of the local Western Union Office has been transferred to Gaffney, S. C. She has succeeded here by Miss Charlotte Creasman of Tryon.

Zeb Taylor