

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

1C The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1C

Vol. 4. TRYON, N.C., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 1 1931. Est. 1-31-28

Thiet Bound Over

Luke Rooker, colored, charged with stealing articles from the railway camp cars near the Tryon Cash Store, was arrested in Spartanburg county, and brought here for preliminary hearing yesterday before Justice George E. Bell who bound the prisoner over to the Superior court. He is now in jail waiting trial.

Tennis Tournament April 10.

All those playing in men's doubles, ladies doubles, and mixed doubles are urged to choose their partners at once and notify Miss Constance Burtenshaw, phone 85-J. Entries close Saturday. Please hurry!

Good Bank Report

A condensed statement of the Tryon Bank & Trust Co. printed in today's Bulletin, is the first official call for a statement since the bank was organized Jan. 17. Total resources that day were $37,000. Today's report shows $109,506.18.

Gymkhana Thursday

The annual Gymkhana entertainment will be held Thursday at Harmon Field, starting with barbetue dinner at 12:30, races at 2 p.m. An electric wire has been run to the field. Another new improvement. Tests are now being made to broadcast the Horse Show Events from the announcer to loudspeakers facing the audience, just as they do in big convention halls.

Dance Tonight

The annual dance given under the auspices of the Tryon Riding & Hunt club and the Inn Keepers Association, will be held tonight at Lake Lanier Tea House. Arrangements have been made to facilitate parking space for the guests. Roads in good condition.

Tryon Horse Show April 7