

These books by Tryon authors are for Sale here:

- Songs from a Southern Garden By Elia W. Peattie
- The Pillar and the Flame By Alice Lightner
- Oddments, Bitments and Remainers Jean Stansbury Holden

The beautiful silver trophies and ribbons for the Horse Show are now on display at Missildine's window.

Mr. J.W. Richardson leaves today on business to Detroit.

Messrs. Richard Covington and R. A. Lassiter of Covington Sport of Asheville will be guests of the Mountain Industries this week-end, for three days.

Was caught on three April Fool tricks today,

Mr. Sam Abernethy of Cleveland, Ohio expected at Pine Crest Inn today.

Phone 1169

Dr. Carl Loven
Foot Specialist

247 E. Main Street Spartanburg, S. C.

The first swap or trade day for farmers will be held Monday at Columbus and every Monday thereafter. All farm folks who want to trade are urged to bring their merchandise.

Don't let your coal get too low. Order now from W. S. Green. Phone 154.

Firemen's supper-meeting tonight at 7:30 at City Hall.

TAXI SERVICE

DAY OR NIGHT
Party trips a speciality.
BUICKS & PACKARDS
for sight seeing tours.
BUICKS, CHRYSLERS, & FORDS
for U-Drive.
RED TOP, INC.
Harrison Bridgeman, local Mgr.
PHONE 68.

Asheville and the mountains had snow last night, but it is so warm at Tryon that it was rain when reaching here.

ACETYLENE WELDING

J. A. DIXON
LANDRUM, S. C.
NEAR MOORE LUMBER CO.

The head of the dog killed several days ago was mad according to reports from Raleigh Pasteur experts. Two more dogs said to have been bitten, have been killed.

Nicaragua earthquake kills 1,000 people, 1,000 injured.

Knute Rockne, football coach, was killed in an airplane crash yesterday.

FOR SALE: All or any part of 20 acres in Tryon, three houses. Lot 52x100 on Main St. Also 200 acres above Lake Lanier. Will sacrifice.

John P. Lockhart.

THE BULLETIN $1.50 YEAR