

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 4. TRYON, N.C., SATURDAY, APRIL 4 1931. Est. 1-31-28

Easter Dance Monday

The first annual Easter Dance will be held Monday night at Oak Hall for Horse Show visitors and guests of the town. Bill Davenport's orchestra will furnish the music. Pine Crest Inn and Oak Hall are hosts.

Horse Show Information

The Finance Committee announces that all reservations for seats at the show must be covered with remittances by Monday. After that time seats will be sold at the gate.

The Ways and Means Committee announces that all though the present seats have been sold, more seats are being built and no one who attends the show will have to stand up.

Columbus Bank Officers

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of The Polk County Bank & Trust Co. the following officers were elected: Directors, H. C. Metcalf, chairman, T. E. McKee, E. B. Cloud, J. H. Gibbs, J. W. Artz, Fred W. Blanton, D. D. Pattie, J. Lee Lavendar, P. S. Lewis. President Fred W. Blanton, V.-P. Dr. D. D. Pattie, V.-P. T. E. McKee Cashier P. S. Lewis, Asst. Cashier Gertrude West.

Insane Negro Leaves Hospital

Archie King, 23 year old colored man, and son of Will King, lost his mind yesterday at the hospital where he had been since Wednesday, and escaped to town about 2 p.m. Chief Wilson, Sheriff Wilkins and Constable Durham found him near the cemetery about 6 p.m. He put up a desperate fight to keep from being captured, but was finally lodged in Columbus Jail. Monday he will be taken to Goldsboro state insane asylum. King was considered a "good negro" until his illness.