Dance Tonight

The annual Easter dance will be held tonight at Oak Hall for visitors and Horse Show guests. Tryon people also invited. No charges. Bill Davenport's orchestra from Spartanburg will furnish the music. Pine Crest Inn and Oak Hall are joint hosts.

Ellenboro Wins Debate

In the Triangular Debate Friday night over the question whether the United States should grant the Philippines their independence, the Columbus negative team defeated Green Creek affirmative, but the Columbus affirmative lost to Green Creek negative. Both Ellenboro teams won. On the Columbus affirmative team were Evelyn Walker and Edna Hague. Negative: Clyde Nelson and Mary Pattie.

107 Polk County Farmers Apply for $12,000 Loans

Applications for the farmers' feed, seed, and fertilizer loans should be made at once, says county agent John W. Artz, in order for the farmers to get their money and start a crop. April 30 is the last day the government has given us to make application. 107 farmers have made application for loans and checks are expected from Washington within 6 to 10 days after blanks have been sent from Columbus. If all the loans are granted they will amount to $12,000.

Liquor Car Captured

The county officers captured an auto and 12 gallons of liquor on Hog Back Mt. road last night. The occupant of the car ran when he saw the officers.

Fair Weather for Show

Prospects for a bright, sunny day for Tuesday's Horse Show are good, according to the Bulletin weather prophet. Snow was seen on the mountains this morning and it rained here, but warmer winds are bringing fair weather from the south, so look for a nice day Tuesday.

Landrum Has Funeral Home

Brock Funeral Home is the name of a new Undertaker's establishment in Landrum near the Mutual Bank. Mr. D. D. Brock, owner, is a brother of Mr. A. F. Brock, the Chevrolet man.
