

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 4. TRYON, N.C., SATURDAY, APRIL 11 1931. Est. 1-31-28

Citizens Nominate Ticket

At the Citizens meeting held last night at the City Hall with about 30 present the following ticket was nominated for the May 5th election: For mayor, E. E. Missildine; Commissioners, T. W. Ballew, C. W. Ballenger, Ralph Jackson; School Board, Douglas S. Blois, James Lankford, Nelson Jackson, jr.; Cemetery Commissioners, T. H. Coggey, Mrs. Alice K. Missildine, J. Foster Searles.

Field Meet Postponed

The county track meet for today was postponed on account of rain. Several races were run. Fred Greene of Tryon made a spectacular run in the 220-yd. dash, coming out first. A big crowd was present which was greatly disappointed that the meet could not go on.

District Doctors Coming

The doctors of the Tenth District will hold their spring meeting in Tryon next Wednesday at the Parish House at 2 p. m. with dinner at 6:30 at the Lake Lanier Tea House. Dr. Jervey is vice-president of the Society. Eight subjects will be discussed before dinner, and three addresses afterwards. The visiting ladies will be entertained at St. Lukes hospital by the Hospital Auxiliary. Mayor E. E. Missildine will give the address of welcome, and Rev. C. P. Burnett the Invocation. Dr. S. O. Black of Spartanburg is one of the invited speakers.

Court Monday

Spring term of Superior court will open Monday in Columbus with Judge Schenck presiding.

At The Churches

CONGREGATIONAL: 11 a. m. Dr. John Brittan Clark preaches on "The Doors Being Shur".

EPISCOPAL: Holy Communion at 8 o'clock. Morning prayer and services at 11. Rev. C. P. Burnett.

METHODIST: "Religion and the Home". 11 a. m. at Saluda. 8 p. m. at Tryon. Rev. O. L. Robinson.

PRESBYTERIAN: Tryon at 11 a. m. Columbus at 8 p. m. Rev. D. M. McGeachey.

BAPTIST: "In Hope of Eternal Life" will be the subject of Dr. Bomar's sermon Sunday at 11 A. M. Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. will meet as usual.