WEATHER BY POSTAL TELEGRAPH

Generally fair tonight and Sunday slightly cooler tonight.

Burial services were held today for the Nation's speaker who was Long-worth much to his country.

Next Wednesday, the 15th is Fishing Day at Brevard. The newspaper of that place will close up and the entire staff go fishing, as well as most of the town. "It will be a month until next Wednesday" says Editor Barrett.

Floyd Peeler, the local jeweler, says Robert Reich ought to name his dog "Elgin" because he is a good watch dog.

Chicago may be deep in debt but it got rid of one big bill the other day when they defeated Big Bill Thompson.
