

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C.
under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 4.

TRYON, N.C., TUESDAY, APRIL 14 1931.

Est. 1-31-28

Doctors Here Tomorrow

Nearly 100 physicians of the Tenth District will meet in Tryon Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Parish House for a general discussion of important medical questions. Rev. C. P. Burnett will offer the invocation and Mayor E. E. Missildine will give the welcome address.

Tennis Trophies Exhibited

Beautiful trophies for winners in the Tennis Tournament are now on exhibit at Missildine's Pharmacy. Also on exhibit is a silver trumpet of the Columbia, S. C. Fire Dept. with all the names engraved of the presidents since 1836. C. J. Lynch's name is there for the years 1900 to 1918

Kiwanis At Landrum

Meeting today was featured with talks from Judge Schenck, Solicitor Pless, Attorneys Arledge, Shuman and Massenburg.

Spain Now A Republic

King Alfonso abdicated at 3 p.m. today. Royal family leaves for Paris tonight. The Country of Columbus, first united by Ferdinand and Isabella, is now a republic. The people demanded a republic and the king quit rather than spill innocent blood. The King is a good sport, and friend of Will Rogers.

Big Leagues Opened Today

Both Leagues began playing today. Washington and Philadelphia game at Washington received over radio at Ayant Electric Co. as we went to press was 3 to 2, Philadelphia, in the tenth inning. Washington fills bases, Grove pitching. 11th inning 5-3 favor Philadelphia.

---

The Bulletin One Year $1.50

---