

The real scenic beauty of Tryon is just now beginning to manifest itself with blossoms and new leaves from the dogwood and fruit trees.

Entered as second-class mail matter August 20, at the Post Office at Tryon, N. C. under the Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

1c The Tryon Daily Bulletin 1c

Vol. 4. TRYON, N.C., THURSDAY, APRIL 16 1931. Est. 1-31-28

Fred Swann for Commissioner

Fred E. Swann, local merchant and former commissioner, stated today that he would be a candidate for commissioner on the Tryon council in the coming May election. Mrs. A. A. Merrick and Mrs. Frank McFarland have been suggested for the Cemetery Commission. George A. Cathey has also announced for the council.

'Big Crowd at Field Day

A large crowd of school pupils from all over the county were gathered at Harmon Field this afternoon for the annual Field Day races.

Operetta at Columbus

The Columbus School grammar grade department will present an operetta Friday night at Stearns School auditorium.

Methodist Revival Sunday

Two weeks revival services will begin Sunday night at the Tryon Methodist church, Rev. H.F. Duncan of Mills River preaching.

Mrs. Holden P.T.A. Speaker

Mrs. E.G. Holden will speak at the Tryon P. T. A. meeting Monday at 3:30. Tea will be served by Mrs. Jervey, Mrs. McFarland and Mrs. Davenport.

The Bulletin One Year $1.50
